

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 22, 2019

TO: Honorable Dan Huberty, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2997 by Talarico (Relating to suicide prevention training for certain public school employees and public school mental health related programs and the applicability of related immunity provisions.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

Local Government Impact

The Texas Education Agency (TEA) assumes school districts and charter schools would have some increased costs to the extent the bill requires them to provide training to employees that do not currently receive the training. The fiscal impact would vary by district and charter school.
