Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 8, 2019

TO: Honorable Dustin Burrows, Chair, House Committee on Ways & Means

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3197 by Landgraf (Relating to the use of municipal hotel occupancy tax revenue in certain municipalities.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Chapter 351 of the Tax Code, regarding municipal hotel occupancy taxes.

Section 351.10712 would be added to authorize a certain municipality to use municipal hotel occupancy taxes to construct sports facilities and a multipurpose convocation center capable of hosting intercollegiate athletic events on land owned by a state university if the municipality leases the land from the university for at least 25 years.

The bill would apply to a municipality with a population of at least 95,000, in which a component university of the University of Texas System is located, and that is located in a county bisected by United States Highway 385 that has a population of not more than 140,000,

This bill would take effect immediately upon enactment, assuming it received the requisite two-thirds majority votes in both houses of the Legislature. Otherwise, it would take effect September 1, 2019.

The bill would have no state revenue implications.

Local Government Impact

The bill would modify the allowable use of municipal hotel occupancy tax revenue in the City of Odessa.
