

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 8, 2019

TO: Honorable J. M. Lozano, Chair, House Committee on Environmental Regulation

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3291 by Cortez (Relating to the eligibility for grants for alternative fueling facilities.),
As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would the Health and Safety Code to exempt certain entities in certain locations as defined in the bill from requirements that applications for alternative fueling facilities that would be publicly accessible be considered for funding under the program prior to other alternative fueling facilities. Based on information provided by the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality, it is assumed that duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be absorbed with existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
