April 29, 2019

TO: Honorable Kelly Hancock, Chair, Senate Committee on Business & Commerce

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director    Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3371 by Darby (Relating to the regulation of certain battery-charged fences by municipalities and counties.), As Engrossed

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Local Government Code to define certain characteristics of "battery-charged fence" and would limit the authority of municipalities and counties to regulate these fences.

Local Government Impact

According to the Texas Association of Counties, the bill would not have a fiscal impact on counties.

According to the Texas Municipal League, the bill would not have a significant fiscal impact on cities.
