March 31, 2019

TO: Honorable Dade Phelan, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3402 by Phelan (Relating to changing the criminal offense of conspiracy to circumvent the open meetings law.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code to modify the circumstances under which a criminal offense of conspiracy to circumvent the open meetings law would occur. The offense modified by the bill would be a misdemeanor.

Local Government Impact

The offense modified by this bill would be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $100 or more than $500, confinement in the county jail for not less than one month or more than six months, or both the fine and confinement. Costs associated with enforcement and prosecution could likely be absorbed within existing resources. Revenue gain from fines imposed and collected is not anticipated to have a significant fiscal impact.
