

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 31, 2019

TO: Honorable Dade Phelan, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3899 by Springer (Relating to the encouragement of intra-state commerce.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Local Government Code to define "uniquely local concern," "regulation of local land use," and "citizens' physical safety." The bill would restrict local regulation of activities outside these definitions not otherwise expressly authorized by statute. The bill would also define "commercial activity" and specify that any such activity subject to regulation by Texas or the United States cannot present a uniquely local concern.

Local Government Impact

According to the Texas Municipal League, no significant fiscal impact to cities is anticipated.

According to the Texas Association of Counties, no significant fiscal impact to counties is anticipated.
