

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 17, 2019

TO: Honorable Garnet Coleman, Chair, House Committee on County Affairs

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3910 by Sherman, Sr. (Relating to the establishment of one or more supplemental county civil service commissions in certain counties.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Local Government Code to allow certain counties to create supplemental commissions that would assist an existing county civil service commission in administering their civil service system. Final decisions made by these supplemental commissions would be appealable to district courts.

According to the Office of Court Administration (OCA), although the bill would make a final decision rendered by the supplemental commission appealable to a district court, any increased caseload would likely be absorbed by existing resources. No significant fiscal impact to the state court system is anticipated.

Local Government Impact

According to OCA, although the bill would make a final decision rendered by the supplemental commission appealable to a district court, any increased caseload would likely be absorbed by existing resources. No significant fiscal impact to local courts is anticipated.

According to Dallas County, the bill would have no fiscal impact to the county.
