

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 23, 2019

TO: Honorable Garnet Coleman, Chair, House Committee on County Affairs

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director    Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB4073 by Perez (Relating to the time for dissolution of a crime control and prevention district.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Local Government Code to modify the manner in which a crime control and prevention district is dissolved and in which any associated sales and use tax is abolished. The bill would stipulate that if a district is to be dissolved as a result of a failed continuation referendum, the abolition of the local crime control sales and use tax takes effect on the date the district is dissolved.

According to the Comptroller of Public Accounts, the bill would have no revenue implications and would have no fiscal impact on the state.

Local Government Impact

According to the Texas Municipal League, no significant fiscal impact to cities is anticipated.

According to the Texas Association of Counties, no fiscal impact to counties is anticipated.
