IN RE: HB4202 by Smithee (Relating to the authority of a court to grant a motion for a new trial in certain criminal cases.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure to permit a defendant to file a motion for a new trial and allow the defendant to be prosecuted and punished under the law in effect at the time the new trial is granted.

Based on the analysis of the Office of Court Administration, duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished using existing resources.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2019.
