April 29, 2019

TO: Honorable Larry Taylor, Chair, Senate Committee on Education

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director    Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB784 by Hughes (Relating to local school health advisory councils and health education provided by school districts, including requirements regarding human sexuality instruction.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would revise guidelines for local school health advisory councils and school districts related to the process of adopting human sexuality curriculum and materials.

This analysis assumes that the bill could be implemented at the state level with existing resources.

Local Government Impact

School districts could face increased costs associated with establishing and implementing a process for adopting curriculum and materials related to human sexuality. School districts could also see costs related to providing notice to parents about the content of human sexuality instruction and making the content available on the district's website.
