SB 397, 74th Legislature

Codified service areas in statute as a means to avoid duplication of services amongst community colleges.

Lee College's Taxing Boundary

Our current funding system relies heavily on property taxes from residents in only one of the seventeen school districts that we serve. This system places a burden on a small fraction of our service area to supplement the educational facilities of their non-tax paying neighbors and creates a disadvantage to the students in those neighboring school districts who must pay an out-of-district tuition rate.
