

Hello

Texas does not need any new gun laws. Gun laws that restrict who and where a Texan can have personal defense are the problem. Gun free zones are a big problem as criminals will not comply as will lawful citizens who become the victims of the criminals.

Suffering from hearing loss I can attest that suppressors would have saved my hearing if I had been allowed to use them in years past.

Thanks for your consideration.

Benson Owens