To whom it may concern:

I am a proud gun owner that does not want to see any restrictions to any gun laws including "red flag gun laws", expanded background checks, or other measures that restrict gun owners. Especially at a time when large groups of people are trying to (and succeeding) in limiting the amount of police that enforce the law, citizens need to be able to protect themselves from looters, home invaders and other dangerous individuals that seek to commit violence and crime against citizens. The second amendment is one of the most important rights that we have as American citizens and so many good people have died in wars so that we have the right to defend ourselves. To restrict gun rights against the people is unconstitutional and dangerous and only looks to further destabilize our country. I would hope in Texas, we would not be looking at restricting any gun rights. This has been a political agenda and should not be involving sovereign citizens who wish to remain free.

Thank you,
