H.R. No. 2

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, A life lived with joy and purpose drew to a close 2 with the passing of Stephen C. Helbing Sr. on May 31, 2021, at the 3 age of 94; and

4           WHEREAS, The son of Ruby Couch Helbing and Dr. Arlington
5 Helbing, Steve Helbing was born in Barnhart on February 12, 1927;
6 his parents moved to San Angelo to provide him with better 7 educational opportunity, and he spent happy boyhood summers on his 8 maternal grandfather's ranch near Ozona; during World War II, he 9 served in the U.S. Navy, and he went on to complete his bachelor's 10 degree in agricultural economics at Texas A&M University; he began
11 working for Hughes Tools in Jayton, and his long career in the oil 12 industry later took him to New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Colorado; an 13 admired entrepreneur, he served as president of the New Mexico Oil 14 and Gas Association and New Mexico Landmen's Association; he 15 continued the family ranching tradition and also bought a farm near 16 Mertzon; and

17           WHEREAS, Mr. Helbing served as a New Mexico state 18 representative and Republican Party leader; active in civic life in 19 Midland and Roswell, he was chair of the Roswell Salvation Army for 20 many years, and he was an elder in the Presbyterian Church; he 21 formed a host of lasting friendships along the way and acquired a 22 large store of Aggie jokes from his network; in all his endeavors, 23 he was supported by the love and encouragement of his wife of seven 24 decades, Ellen Saylor Helbing; he was the proud father of four

1 sons, Stephen, Scott, Ross, and Robert, who honored him on his 80th 2 birthday by endowing a scholarship in agricultural economics at his 3 alma mater; blessed with nine grandchildren, he was an adoring
4 "Pop-Pop"; in his final years, his greatest joy was sitting on the 5 porch of his farm with his wife and other family members, telling 6 stories and sharing laughter and life lessons; and

7 WHEREAS, Although Steve Helbing is deeply missed by those he 8 left behind, they will forever cherish their memories of his 9 wonderful sense of humor and steadfast devotion to his family, his 10 faith, and his country; now, therefore, be it
