CHAPTER 230. CREDIT AGAINST PREMIUM TAXES FOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO FUND

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 230.001. DEFINITIONS. In this chapter:

(1) "Fund" means the Family Educational Relief Program fund under Section 29.354, Education Code.

(2) "State premium tax liability" means any liability incurred by an entity under Chapters 221 through 226.

SUBCHAPTER B. CREDIT

Sec. 230.051. CREDIT. An entity may apply for a credit against the entity's state premium tax liability in the amount and under the conditions provided by this chapter. The comptroller shall award credits as provided by Section 230.053.

Sec. 230.052. AMOUNTS; LIMITATION ON TOTAL CREDITS. (a) Subject to Subsections (b) and (c), the amount of an entity's credit is equal to the lesser of the amount contributed to the fund during the period covered by the tax report or 50 percent of the entity's state premium tax liability for the report.
For the 2022 state fiscal year, the total amount of credits that may be awarded under this chapter may not exceed $200 million. For each subsequent state fiscal year, the total amount of credits that may be awarded is:

1. the same total amount of credits available under this subsection for the previous state fiscal year, if Subdivision (2) does not apply; or
2. 125 percent of the total amount of credits available under this subsection for the previous state fiscal year, if the total amount of credits awarded in the previous state fiscal year was at least 90 percent of the total amount of credits available under this subsection for that fiscal year.

The comptroller by rule shall prescribe procedures by which the comptroller may allocate credits under this chapter. The procedures must provide that credits are allocated first to entities that received preliminary approval for a credit under Section 230.0525 and that apply under Section 230.053. The procedures must provide that any remaining credits are allocated to entities that apply under Section 230.053 on a first-come, first-served basis, based on the date the contribution was initially made.

The comptroller may require an entity to notify the comptroller of the amount the entity intends or expects to apply for under this chapter before the beginning of a state fiscal year or at any other time required by the comptroller.

Sec. 230.0525. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL FOR CREDIT. Before making a contribution to the fund, an entity may apply to the comptroller for preliminary approval of a credit under this chapter for the contribution.

(b) An entity must apply for preliminary approval on a form provided by the comptroller that includes the amount the entity expects to contribute and any other information the comptroller requires.

(c) The comptroller shall grant preliminary approval for credits under this chapter on a first-come, first-served basis, based on the date the comptroller receives the application for preliminary approval.

(d) The comptroller shall grant preliminary approval for a credit under this chapter for a state fiscal year if the sum of the amount of the credit and the total amount of all other credits preliminarily approved under this chapter does not exceed the amount provided by Section 230.052(b).

(e) Final award of a credit preliminarily approved under this section remains subject to the limitations under Section 230.052(a) and all other requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 230.053. APPLICATION FOR CREDIT. (a) An entity must apply for a credit under this chapter on or with the tax report covering the period in which the contribution was made.

(b) The comptroller shall adopt a form for the application for the credit. An entity must use this form in applying for the credit.

(c) Subject to Section 230.052(c), the comptroller may award a credit to an entity that applies for the credit under Subsection (a) if the entity is eligible for the credit and the credit is available under Section 230.052(b). The comptroller has broad discretion in determining whether to grant or deny an application for a credit.

(d) The comptroller shall notify an entity in writing of the comptroller's decision to grant or deny the application under Subsection (a). If the comptroller denies an entity's application, the comptroller shall include in the notice of denial the reasons for the comptroller's decision.

(e) If the comptroller denies an entity's application under Subsection (a), the entity may request in writing a reconsideration of the application not later than the 10th day after the date the notice under Subsection (d) is received. If the entity does not request a reconsideration of the application on or before that date, the comptroller's decision is final.

(f) An entity that requests a reconsideration under Subsection (e) may submit to the comptroller, not later than the 30th day after the date the request for reconsideration is submitted, additional information and documents to support the entity's request for reconsideration.

(g) The comptroller's reconsideration of an application
under this section is not a contested case under Chapter 2001, Government Code. The comptroller's decision on a request for reconsideration of an application is final and is not appealable.

(h) This section does not create a cause of action to contest a decision of the comptroller to deny an application for a credit under this chapter.

Sec. 230.054. RULES; PROCEDURES. The comptroller shall adopt rules and procedures to implement, administer, and enforce this chapter.

Sec. 230.055. ASSIGNMENT PROHIBITED; EXCEPTION. An entity may not convey, assign, or transfer the credit allowed under this chapter to another entity unless all of the assets of the entity are conveyed, assigned, or transferred in the same transaction.

Sec. 230.056. NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY OF CREDIT. The comptroller shall provide notice of the availability of the credit under this chapter on the comptroller's Internet website, in the instructions for insurance premium tax report forms, and in any notice sent to an entity concerning the requirement to file an insurance premium tax report.

SECTION 4. Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, applies beginning with the 2022-2023 school year.

SECTION 5. An entity may apply for a credit under Chapter 230, Insurance Code, as added by this Act, only for a contribution made on or after the effective date of this Act.

SECTION 6. Not later than February 15, 2022, the comptroller of public accounts shall adopt rules as provided by Section 230.054, Insurance Code, as added by this Act.

SECTION 7. Chapter 230, Insurance Code, as added by this Act, applies only to a tax report originally due on or after the effective date of this Act.

SECTION 8. (a) The constitutionality and other validity under the state or federal constitution of all or any part of Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, or Chapter 230, Insurance Code, as added by this Act, may be determined in an action for declaratory judgment in a district court in Travis County under Chapter 37, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, except that this section does not authorize an award of attorney's fees against this state and Section 37.009, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, does not apply to an action filed under this section. This section does not authorize a taxpayer suit to contest the denial of a tax credit by the comptroller of public accounts.

(b) An appeal of a declaratory judgment or order, however characterized, of a district court, including an appeal of the judgment of an appellate court, holding or otherwise determining that all or any part of Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, or Chapter 230, Insurance Code, as added by this Act, is constitutional or unconstitutional, or otherwise valid or invalid, under the state or federal constitution is an accelerated appeal.

(c) If the judgment or order is interlocutory, an interlocutory appeal may be taken from the judgment or order and is an accelerated appeal.

(d) A district court in Travis County may grant or deny a temporary or otherwise interlocutory injunction or a permanent injunction on the grounds of the constitutionality or unconstitutionality, or other validity or invalidity, under the state or federal constitution of all or any part of Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, or Chapter 230, Insurance Code, as added by this Act.

(e) There is a direct appeal to the Texas Supreme Court from an order, however characterized, of a trial court granting or denying a temporary or otherwise interlocutory injunction or a permanent injunction on the grounds of the constitutionality or unconstitutionality, or other validity or invalidity, under the state or federal constitution of all or any part of Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, or Chapter 230, Insurance Code, as added by this Act.
(f) The direct appeal is an accelerated appeal.
(g) This section exercises the authority granted by Section
3-b, Article V, Texas Constitution.
(h) The filing of a direct appeal under this section will automatically stay any temporary or otherwise interlocutory injunction or permanent injunction granted in accordance with this section pending final determination by the Texas Supreme Court, unless the supreme court makes specific findings that the applicant seeking such injunctive relief has pleaded and proved that:
(1) the applicant has a probable right to the relief it seeks on final hearing; and
(2) the applicant will suffer a probable injury that is imminent and irreparable, and that the applicant has no other adequate legal remedy.
(i) An appeal under this section, including an interlocutory, accelerated, or direct appeal, is governed, as applicable, by the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure, including Rules 25.1(d)(6), 26.1(b), 28.1, 28.3, 32.1(g), 37.3(a)(1), 38.6(a) and (b), 40.1(b), and 49.4.
SECTION 9. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives
H.B. No. 150

1 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 2 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 3 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 4 Act takes effect on the 91st day after the last day of the 5 legislative session.
