

Amend HB 1927 (senate committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION _____. Chapter 7B, Code of Criminal Procedure, is amended by adding Subchapter D to read as follows:

SUBCHAPTER D. EXTREME RISK PROTECTIVE ORDER

Art. 7B.151. DEFINITIONS. In this subchapter:

(1) "Bodily injury" and "serious bodily injury" have the meanings assigned by Section 1.07, Penal Code.

(2) "Family," "family violence," and "household" have the meanings assigned by Chapter 71, Family Code.

(3) "Firearm" has the meaning assigned by Section 46.01, Penal Code.

Art. 7B.152. APPLICATION FOR EXTREME RISK PROTECTIVE ORDER.

(a) An application for a protective order under this subchapter may be filed by:

(1) a member of the respondent's family or household;

(2) a parent, guardian, or conservator of a person who is under 18 years of age and a member of the respondent's family or household; or

(3) a prosecuting attorney acting:

(A) on behalf of a person described by Subdivision (1) or (2); or

(B) at the request of a peace officer.

(b) An application must:

(1) include:

(A) detailed allegations, based on personal knowledge of a person described by Subsection (a)(1) or (2) or of a peace officer, regarding any dangerous behavior or conduct exhibited by the respondent, including any behavior or conduct related to the respondent's use of firearms;

(B) any relevant medical or mental health information concerning the respondent, including copies of relevant medical or mental health records, if available;

(C) information concerning the quantity, type, and location of any firearms the applicant believes to be in the respondent's possession or control, if any;

(D) any other relevant facts indicating a need for a protective order under this subchapter;

(E) a statement that the applicant believes the respondent poses an immediate and present danger of causing bodily injury, serious bodily injury, or death to any person, including the respondent, as a result of the respondent's access to firearms; and

(F) for an applicant described by Subsection (a)(3), a statement that the applicant provided notice under Subsection (d) or that the applicant intends to provide that notice promptly and indicating the manner in which the notice is to be provided; and

(2) be signed by the applicant under an oath that, to the knowledge and belief of the applicant, the facts and circumstances contained in the application are true.

(c) An application for a protective order under this subchapter may be filed in a district court, juvenile court having the jurisdiction of a district court, statutory county court, or constitutional county court in the county in which the applicant or the respondent resides.

(d) An applicant described by Subsection (a)(3), before filing an application under this subchapter or promptly following filing the application, shall make a good faith attempt to notify a member of the respondent's family or household and any other person that the applicant believes may be at risk as a result of the respondent's dangerous behavior or conduct of:

(1) the application filed or the applicant's intent to file an application under this subchapter; and

(2) available mental health, family violence, and counseling resources.

Art. 7B.153. CONFIDENTIALITY OF CERTAIN INFORMATION. On receiving an application containing specific medical or mental health information concerning the respondent, the court shall order the clerk to:

(1) strike the information from the public records of the court; and

(2) maintain a confidential record of the information for use only by the court.

Art. 7B.154. TEMPORARY EX PARTE ORDER. (a) If the court finds from the information contained in an application for a protective order under this subchapter that there is reasonable cause to believe that the respondent poses an immediate and present danger of causing bodily injury, serious bodily injury, or death to any person, including the respondent, as a result of the respondent's access to firearms, the court, without further notice to the respondent and without a hearing, may issue a temporary ex parte order prohibiting the respondent from purchasing, owning, possessing, or controlling a firearm.

(b) In a temporary ex parte order, the court may order the respondent to:

(1) relinquish, without delay, any firearms owned by or in the actual or constructive possession or control of the respondent to a law enforcement agency for holding in the manner provided by Article 18.192; and

(2) if applicable, surrender to the court the respondent's license to carry a handgun issued under Subchapter H, Chapter 411, Government Code.

Art. 7B.155. HEARING; ISSUANCE OF PROTECTIVE ORDER. (a) Not later than the 14th day after the later of the date an application is filed or the date a temporary ex parte order is issued, the court shall hold a hearing on the issuance of the protective order.

(b) The court shall provide personal notice of the hearing to the respondent.

(c) In determining whether to issue a protective order under this article, the court:

(1) shall consider:

(A) any relevant medical or mental health information concerning the respondent;

(B) any history of threats or acts of violence by the respondent directed at any person, including the respondent;

(C) any history of the respondent using, attempting to use, or threatening to use physical force against another person;

(D) any recent violation by the respondent of an order issued:

(i) under another provision of this chapter or under Article 17.292;

(ii) under Section 6.504 or Chapter 85, Family Code;

(iii) under Chapter 83, Family Code, if the temporary ex parte order has been served on the respondent; or

(iv) by another jurisdiction as provided by Chapter 88, Family Code;

(E) any arrest or conviction of the respondent for:

(i) an offense under Section 42.072, Penal Code; or

(ii) a misdemeanor offense involving violence, including family violence;

(F) any conviction of the respondent for an offense under Section 42.09, 42.091, or 42.092, Penal Code; and

(G) evidence related to the respondent's abuse of a controlled substance or alcohol, including mitigating evidence of any treatment for or recovery from abusing a controlled substance or alcohol; and

(2) may consider any other relevant factor including:

(A) any previous violation by the respondent of an order described by Subdivision (1)(D); and

(B) evidence regarding the respondent's recent acquisition of firearms, ammunition, or other deadly weapons.

(d) At the close of the hearing, if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent poses an immediate and present danger of causing bodily injury, serious bodily injury, or death to any person, including the respondent, as a result of the respondent's access to firearms, the court shall issue a protective order that includes a statement of the required finding.

(e) If the court does not make the finding described by Subsection (d), the court shall, as applicable, immediately rescind any temporary ex parte order issued under Article 7B.154 and return the respondent's license to carry a handgun.

Art. 7B.156. CONTENTS OF PROTECTIVE ORDER. In a protective order issued under Article 7B.155, the court shall:

(1) prohibit the person who is subject to the order from purchasing, owning, possessing, or controlling a firearm for the duration of the order;

(2) order the person to:

(A) relinquish, without delay, any firearms owned by or in the actual or constructive possession or control of the person to a law enforcement agency for holding in the manner provided by Article 18.192; and

(B) if applicable, surrender to the court the person's license to carry a handgun issued under Subchapter H, Chapter 411, Government Code; and

(3) suspend a license to carry a handgun issued under Subchapter H, Chapter 411, Government Code, that is held by the person.

Art. 7B.157. DURATION OF PROTECTIVE ORDER. (a) A protective order issued under Article 7B.155 is effective until the first anniversary of the date the order was issued.

(b) The court may renew a protective order issued under Article 7B.155 for a period not to exceed one year after the order's original expiration date. Before renewing the order the court must hold a hearing and provide personal notice of the hearing to the person who is the subject of the order.

(c) A person who is the subject of a protective order may file a motion not earlier than the 91st day after the date on which the order was initially issued or renewed, as applicable, requesting that the court review the order and determine whether there is a continuing need for the order. After a hearing on the motion, if the court fails to make the finding that there is no continuing need for the order, the order remains in effect until the date the order expires as provided by this article.

(d) At a hearing to renew or rescind a protective order under this article, the court shall consider the factors described by Article 7B.155(c).

Art. 7B.158. NOTICE TO DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY. (a) Not later than the 30th day after the date a protective order is issued under Article 7B.155, the clerk of the issuing court shall provide the following to the Department of Public Safety:

(1) the complete name, race, and sex of the person who is the subject of the order;

(2) any known identifying number of the person, including a social security number, driver's license number, or state identification number;

(3) the person's date of birth;

(4) if surrendered to the court, the person's license to carry a handgun issued under Subchapter H, Chapter 411, Government Code; and

(5) a copy of the order suspending the person's license to carry a handgun under Subchapter H, Chapter 411, Government Code.

(b) On receipt of an order suspending a license to carry a handgun, the Department of Public Safety shall:

(1) record the suspension of the license in the records of the department;

(2) report the suspension to local law enforcement agencies, as appropriate; and

(3) if the license was not surrendered to the court, demand surrender of the suspended license from the license holder.

(c) Not later than the 30th day after the date the protective order expires under Article 7B.157, the clerk of the issuing court shall notify the Department of Public Safety of the expiration.

Art. 7B.159. APPLICATION OF OTHER LAW. Except as otherwise provided by this subchapter and to the extent applicable, Title 4, Family Code, applies to a protective order issued under this subchapter.

SECTION _____. Chapter 18, Code of Criminal Procedure, is amended by adding Article 18.192 to read as follows:

Art. 18.192. HOLDING AND DISPOSITION OF FIREARM RELINQUISHED UNDER EXTREME RISK PROTECTIVE ORDER. (a) A law enforcement officer who takes possession of a firearm from a person who is the subject of an extreme risk protective order issued under Subchapter D, Chapter 7B, shall immediately provide the person a written copy of the receipt for the firearm and a written notice of the procedure for the return of a firearm under this article.

(b) Not later than the seventh day after the date a firearm subject to disposition under this article is received, the law enforcement agency holding the firearm shall notify the court that issued the extreme risk protective order that the person who is the subject of the order has relinquished the firearm.

(c) Not later than the 30th day after the date the extreme risk protective order is rescinded or expires, the clerk of the court shall notify the law enforcement agency of the rescission or expiration.

(d) Not later than the 30th day after the date the law enforcement agency holding a firearm subject to disposition under this article receives the notice described by Subsection (c), the law enforcement agency shall conduct a check of state and national criminal history record information to verify whether the person may lawfully possess a firearm under 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g) and under the law of this state.

(e) If the check conducted under Subsection (d) verifies that the person may lawfully possess a firearm, the law enforcement agency shall provide to the person by certified mail written notice stating that the firearm may be returned to the person if the person submits a written request before the 121st day after the date of the notice.

(f) An unclaimed firearm that is received under an extreme risk protective order issued under Subchapter D, Chapter 7B, may not be destroyed or forfeited to the state.

(g) The law enforcement agency holding the firearm may provide for the firearm to be sold by a person who is a licensed firearms dealer under 18 U.S.C. Section 923 if:

(1) the check conducted under Subsection (d) shows that the person who was the subject of the extreme risk protective order may not lawfully possess a firearm; or

(2) the notice is provided under Subsection (e) and the person who was the subject of the extreme risk protective order does not submit, before the 121st day after the date of the notice, a written request for the return of the firearm.

(h) The proceeds from the sale of a firearm under this article shall be paid to the owner of the seized firearm, less the cost of administering this article with respect to the firearm.

(i) A law enforcement officer or other employee of a law enforcement agency is subject to punishment for contempt of court if the officer or employee violates this article with the intent to withhold a firearm from a person who, at the time the violation occurred:

(1) was the subject of an extreme risk protective order that was rescinded or that expired; and

(2) may lawfully possess the firearm.

SECTION _____. Subchapter D, Chapter 411, Government Code, is amended by adding Section 411.0522 to read as follows:

Sec. 411.0522. INFORMATION CONCERNING EXTREME RISK PROTECTIVE ORDER. (a) The department by rule shall establish a procedure to provide information concerning a person who is the subject of an extreme risk protective order issued under Subchapter D, Chapter 7B, Code of Criminal Procedure, to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for inclusion in the National Instant Criminal Background Check System.

(b) The procedure must require the department to provide any information received under Article 7B.158, Code of Criminal Procedure, to the Federal Bureau of Investigation not later than the 30th day after the date the department received the information.

SECTION _____. Section 411.172(a), Government Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) A person is eligible for a license to carry a handgun if the person:

(1) is a legal resident of this state for the six-month period preceding the date of application under this subchapter or is otherwise eligible for a license under Section 411.173(a);

(2) is at least 21 years of age;

(10) has not been finally determined to be delinquent in making a child support payment administered or collected by the attorney general;

(11) has not been finally determined to be delinquent in the payment of a tax or other money collected by the comptroller, the tax collector of a political subdivision of the state, or any agency or subdivision of the state;

(12) is not currently:

(A) restricted under a court protective order, including an extreme risk protective order issued under Subchapter D, Chapter 7B, Code of Criminal Procedure; or

(B) subject to a restraining order affecting the spousal relationship, other than a restraining order solely affecting property interests;

(13) has not, in the 10 years preceding the date of application, been adjudicated as having engaged in delinquent conduct violating a penal law of the grade of felony; and

(14) has not made any material misrepresentation, or failed to disclose any material fact, in an application submitted pursuant to Section 411.174.

SECTION _____. Sections 411.187(a) and (c), Government Code, are amended to read as follows:

(a) The department shall suspend a license under this section if the license holder:

(1) is charged with the commission of a Class A or

Class B misdemeanor or equivalent offense, or of an offense under Section 42.01, Penal Code, or equivalent offense, or of a felony under an information or indictment;

(2) fails to notify the department of a change of address, name, or status as required by Section 411.181;

(3) commits an act of family violence and is the subject of an active protective order rendered under Title 4, Family Code; ~~[or]~~

(4) is arrested for an offense involving family violence or an offense under Section 42.072, Penal Code, and is the subject of an order for emergency protection issued under Article 17.292, Code of Criminal Procedure; or

(5) is the subject of an active protective order issued under Subchapter D, Chapter 7B, Code of Criminal Procedure.

(c) The department shall suspend a license under this section:

(1) for 30 days, if the person's license is subject to suspension for a reason listed in Subsection (a)(2) ~~[, (3), or (4), except as provided by Subdivision (2)]~~;

(2) ~~[for not less than one year and not more than three years, if the person's license:~~

~~[(A) is subject to suspension for a reason listed in Subsection (a), other than the reason listed in Subsection (a)(1), and~~

~~[(B) has been previously suspended for the same reason,~~

~~[(3)]~~ until dismissal of the charges, if the person's license is subject to suspension for the reason listed in Subsection (a)(1); or

(3) ~~[(4)]~~ for the duration of or the period specified by:

(A) the protective order issued under Title 4, Family Code, if the person's license is subject to suspension for the reason listed in Subsection (a)(3) ~~[(a)(5)]~~; ~~[or]~~

(B) the order for emergency protection issued under Article 17.292, Code of Criminal Procedure, if the person's license is subject to suspension for the reason listed in

Subsection (a)(4); or

(C) the extreme risk protective order issued under Subchapter D, Chapter 7B, Code of Criminal Procedure, if the person's license is subject to suspension for the reason listed in Subsection (a)(5) [~~(a)(6)~~].

SECTION _____. Chapter 37, Penal Code, is amended by adding Section 37.083 to read as follows:

Sec. 37.083. FALSE REPORT REGARDING REQUEST FOR EXTREME RISK PROTECTIVE ORDER. (a) In this section, "prosecuting attorney" means a district attorney, criminal district attorney, or county attorney.

(b) A person commits an offense if, with intent to deceive, the person knowingly makes to a prosecuting attorney or peace officer a false statement relating to a request that a prosecuting attorney file an application for an extreme risk protective order under Subchapter D, Chapter 7B, Code of Criminal Procedure.

(c) An offense under this section is a Class A misdemeanor.

SECTION _____. Section 46.06(a), Penal Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) A person commits an offense if the person:

(1) sells, rents, leases, loans, or gives a handgun to any person knowing that the person to whom the handgun is to be delivered intends to use it unlawfully or in the commission of an unlawful act;

(2) intentionally or knowingly sells, rents, leases, or gives or offers to sell, rent, lease, or give to any child younger than 18 years of age any firearm, club, or location-restricted knife;

(3) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly sells a firearm or ammunition for a firearm to any person who is intoxicated;

(4) knowingly sells a firearm or ammunition for a firearm to any person who has been convicted of a felony before the fifth anniversary of the later of the following dates:
