AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

The United States Special Forces—also known as the Green Beret—trace their roots back to the WWII Office of Strategic Services (OSS). The OSS was formed to gather intelligence and conduct operations behind enemy lines in support of resistance groups. Called the "Quiet Professionals," Special Forces units are deployed worldwide.

Currently, the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles (TxDMV) has military service license plates available for the United States Air Force, the United States Coast Guard, and the United States Marine Corps, but not the United States Army Special Forces. S.B. 697 will allow TxDMV to issue specialty license plates for current and former members of the United States Army Special Forces who have been awarded the Special Forces Tab or completed the corresponding qualifications.

As proposed, S.B. 697 amends current law relating to the issuance of specialty license plates to honor members of the United States Army Special Forces.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
