(b) The commission shall, on an ongoing basis, review the minimum standards to identify any standards that do not account for the needs and risks of the different types and sizes of jails. In conducting the review, the commission shall solicit feedback from a diverse collection of jails, including those of different types and sizes.

(c) The commission shall revise any standards identified under Subsection (b) as the commission considers necessary. In revising a standard, the commission shall consider:

Except as otherwise provided by Subsection (b), the appointed law enforcement agency shall conduct the investigation.

(b) A law enforcement agency appointed by the commission under Subsection (a) may present evidence to the commission that investigating the death would create a conflict of interest that cannot be mitigated by the law enforcement agency. If the commission determines that the conflict of interest cannot be mitigated, the commission shall appoint another law enforcement agency under Subsection (a) to investigate the death.

(c) The commission shall adopt any rules necessary relating to the appointment of a law enforcement agency under Subsection (a), including rules relating to cooperation between law enforcement agencies and to procedures for handling evidence.

Not later than April 1, 2022, each jail under the jurisdiction of the Commission on Jail Standards shall post the information and update the inmate handbooks as necessary to comply with the commission's rules adopted under that section.

SECTION 15. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of this section, Section 511.00405, Government Code, as redesignated and amended by this Act, applies to a member of the Commission on Jail Standards appointed before, on, or after the effective date of this Act.

(b) A member of the Commission on Jail Standards who, before the effective date of this Act, completed the training program required by Section 511.004, Government Code, as that law existed before the effective date of this Act, is only required to complete additional training on the subjects added by this Act to the training program required by Section 511.00405, Government Code, as redesignated and amended by this Act. A member described by this subsection may not vote, deliberate, or be counted as a member in attendance at a meeting of the commission held on or after December 1, 2021, until the member completes the additional training.
