1	the activity; and
2	(3) the landlord does not file a forcible detainer
3	suit against the offending tenant under Section 93.013 before the
4	30th day after the date the notice is given.
5	(c) Notwithstanding a provision of the lease to the 6	contrary, if a landlord is in breach of a tenant's lease under
7	Subsection (b), the tenant may:
8	(1) terminate the tenant's rights and obligations
9	under the lease;
10	(2) vacate the leased premises; and
11	(3) avoid liability for future rent and any other sums
12	due under the lease for terminating the lease and vacating the
13	premises before the end of the lease term.
14	(d) This section does not prohibit a landlord from pursuing
15	a civil action against a complaining tenant for any amount due under
16	the complaining tenant's lease if, after the landlord investigates
17	the offending tenant, the landlord determines the complaining
18	tenant's belief regarding the unlawful activity, as stated in the
19	written notice under Subsection (b)(2), was not reasonable.
20	(e) In a civil action described by Subsection (d), there is
21	a rebuttable presumption that a complaining tenant's belief
22	regarding an offending tenant's engagement in unlawful activity is
23	reasonable if the complaining tenant gave the landlord the notice
24	required by Subsection (b)(2).
25	SECTION 3. The changes in law made by this Act apply only to
26	a commercial lease that is entered into or renewed on or after the

27 effective date of this Act. A commercial lease that is entered into or renewed before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law applicable to the lease immediately before the effective date of this Act, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose. SECTION 4. This Act takes effect September 1, 2021.
