6 brother, Ethan; she grew up attending the Second Baptist Church of 7 Angleton, and she went on to discover her love of school at Holy 8 Comforter Episcopal Church Preschool and Westside Elementary, 9 where she adored her teachers and classmates; spirited and full of 10 life, she found many outlets for her endless reserve of energy, 11 which included running, swimming, dancing, playing softball, 12 jumping on the trampoline, and playing with her friends and 13 cousins; and

14 WHEREAS, Abigail fiercely loved her brother Ethan, who was 15 her best friend, and she was cherished and doted upon by her 16 parents, her grandparents, and a host of other relatives; she was 17 surrounded by their support, affection, and prayers as she battled 18 cancer, and even on occasions where she needed to stay in the 19 hospital for treatment, she remained unwaveringly cheerful and 20 optimistic; and

21 WHEREAS, After meeting and striking up a friendship with 22 Freeport Police Chief Raymond Garivey, Abigail expressed the desire 23 to one day become a police officer so that she could help others;
24 her wish was granted on February 7, 2019, when she was sworn in as a

1 member of the Freeport Police Department with the badge number 758;
2 her story touched the hearts of people around the world, and she 3 went on to be honored by numerous law enforcement agencies and 4 organizations throughout Texas and other states; and

5 WHEREAS, While the loss of this caring and vivacious young 6 girl will always be deeply felt, her loved ones will forever find 7 inspiration in remembering the joy, laughter, and grace that she 8 brought to their lives; now, therefore, be it
