

By: Schwertner

S.C.R. No. 20

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, The original 1847 Colt Walker pistol was 2 historically crucial to the early survival of the great State of 3 Texas; and

4 WHEREAS, The original 1847 Colt Walker pistol was an 5 essential tool in the defeat of the Mexican army during the 6 Mexican-American War to reclaim Texas, the 28th state of the Union; 7 and

8 WHEREAS, The co-inventor of the original 1847 Colt Walker
9 pistol, Samuel Walker, was a captain in the Texas Rangers, the first 10 state police agency in the country; and

11 WHEREAS, The original 1847 Colt Walker pistol was America's 12 first pistol to hold six rounds, otherwise known as a 13 "six-shooter"; and

14 WHEREAS, The original 1847 Colt Walker pistol is still the 15 most powerful black powder pistol in existence; now, therefore, be 16 it

17 RESOLVED, That the 87th Legislature of the State of Texas
18 hereby recognize the original 1847 Colt Walker pistol as the 19 official handgun of the State of Texas.