

1 District became a preferred venue for patent litigation; he was
2 heavily involved in the New York Intellectual Property Law
3 Association, the Leahy Institute of Advanced Patent Studies, and 4 the Sedona Conference; moreover, he was frequently called upon to 5 moderate judicial panels and appear at legal conferences across the 6 country; he also visited Chinese universities with a delegation of 7 attorneys and judges and lectured on U.S. trial practices; among 8 myriad accolades, he was recognized by The Best Lawyers in America
9 as 2018 Dallas/Fort Worth Lawyer of the Year for Patent Litigation
10 and 2020 Dallas/Fort Worth Lawyer of the Year for Copyright 11 Litigation; and

12 WHEREAS, Mr. Siebman regularly represented clients in 13 complex commercial litigation in the Fifth U.S. Circuit Court of 14 Appeals, as well as other venues, and he served his profession in 15 numerous leadership roles; committed to innovation, he chaired the 16 advisory board of the Institute for Law and Technology and served as 17 an ex officio member of the board; he worked tirelessly in behalf of 18 his colleagues in East Texas, founding the district's bar 19 association and serving as its president; moreover, he was the 20 driving force behind the association's Bench-Bar Conference of the 21 Eastern District of Texas, one of the nation's foremost legal 22 programs, and served as chair for a quarter century; he made further 23 contributions as a member of several Eastern District committees 24 and the State Bar of Texas Board of Directors; and

25 WHEREAS, Highly engaged in civic life, Mr. Siebman served as 26 Republican Party chair in Grayson County and as a member of the 27 State Republican Executive Committee; he energetically supported

1 GOP candidates at all levels and was instrumental in the ascendance
2 of the Republican Party in the county and the state; nevertheless, 3 he was happy to reach across the aisle in the public interest, and 4 he received plaudits in the Eastern District for his work with a 5 prominent local Democrat to fill vacant federal judgeships; in 6 2000, he was a member of the Presidential Electoral College; and

7 WHEREAS, Mr. Siebman served on the Red River Boundary
8 Commission and played a key role in resolving a dispute between 9 Texas and Oklahoma dating back to the Louisiana Purchase; as 10 conservator of the Riverbend Water Resource District, he helped 11 settle a decades-long legal battle over water issues in East Texas
12 and Southwest Arkansas, and he was appointed in 2017 to the Red 13 River Interstate Compact Commission; he also served as chair of the 14 North Texas Regional Airport Board and of the Grayson County
15 Regional Mobility Authority; and

16 WHEREAS, Clyde Siebman made a tremendous positive impact
17 through his professional and civic contributions, earning the high 18 esteem of all who knew him, but he will be remembered equally for 19 his warmth, integrity, and kindness; now, therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, That the 87th Legislature of the State of Texas
21 hereby pay tribute to the life of Clyde Moody Siebman and extend 22 sincere condolences to his loved ones; and, be it further

23 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 24 prepared for his family and that when the Texas House of 25 Representatives and Senate adjourn this day, they do so in memory of 26 Clyde Moody Siebman.

President of the Senate

Speaker of the House

I hereby certify that S.C.R. No. 39 was adopted by the Senate on April 6, 2021, by a rising vote.

Secretary of the Senate

I hereby certify that S.C.R. No. 39 was adopted by the House on April 23, 2021, by a rising vote.

Chief Clerk of the House

Approved:

Date

Governor