Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 87TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 29, 2021

TO: Honorable Andrew S. Murr, Chair, House Committee on Corrections

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB30 by Talarico (Relating to educational requirements for certain incarcerated students.), As Introduced

Estimated Two-year Net Impact to General Revenue Related Funds for HB30, As Introduced: a negative impact of ($1,264,735) through the biennium ending August 31, 2023.

The bill would make no appropriation but could provide the legal basis for an appropriation of funds to implement the provisions of the bill.

General Revenue-Related Funds, Five- Year Impact:

Fiscal Year	Probable Net Positive/(Negative) Impact to General Revenue Related Funds
2022	($735,455)
2023	($529,280)
2024	($529,280)
2025	($529,280)
2026	($529,280)

All Funds, Five-Year Impact:

Fiscal Year	Probable Savings/(Cost) from Foundation School Fund 193
2022	($735,455)
2023	($529,280)
2024	($529,280)
2025	($529,280)
2026	($529,280)

Fiscal Analysis

The bill would require Windham School District (WSD) to offer a course of instruction leading to a high school diploma to each incarcerated student who is younger than 18 (or younger than 22, if the student is receiving special education services).

Methodology

According to WSD, as of March 2021 there were 358 students who would qualify under the terms of the bill. To implement the bill and provide educational services sufficient to serve 100 students, WSD estimates that start-up, salary, and operating costs would total $735,455 in fiscal year 2022. In subsequent fiscal years salary and operating costs would total $529,280.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
