

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 87TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 17, 2021

TO: Honorable Briscoe Cain, Chair, House Committee on Elections

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB752 by Israel (Relating to the election of certain unopposed candidates.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

This bill would amend the Texas Election Code related to certain unopposed candidates. According to the Secretary of State, the changes in this bill would have the effect of shortening the ballot for counties and political subdivisions with a large number of unopposed candidates.

According to the Secretary of State, no significant fiscal impact is anticipated.

Local Government Impact

According to the Texas Association of Counties, no significant fiscal implication to counties is anticipated.
