IN RE: HB1419 by Hull (Relating to the duties of a law enforcement agency regarding missing children and missing persons and regarding unidentified bodies.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure to revise the duties of a law enforcement agency regarding missing children and missing persons and regarding unidentified bodies.

This analysis assumes that any costs associated with the bill could be absorbed using existing resources and that implementing the provisions of the bill would not result in a significant impact on state correctional populations or on the demand for state correctional resources.
