

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 87TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION
Revision 1

April 22, 2021

TO: Honorable Briscoe Cain, Chair, House Committee on Elections

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1725 by Paul (relating to delivery of ballots by mail.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would repeal a section of the Election Code relating to the delivery of certain ballots.

According to the Secretary of State, no significant impact to the state is anticipated.

This analysis assumes the provisions of the bill would not result in a significant impact on state correctional populations or on the demand for state correctional resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Source Agencies: 307 Secretary of State

LBB Staff: JMc, SLE, GP, SD, LCO