

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 87TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 28, 2021

TO: Honorable Ken King, Chair, House Committee on Culture, Recreation & Tourism

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3373 by Burrows (Relating to the certification of live music venues by and other duties of the Texas Music Office.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill designates the Texas Music Office with the authority of issuing certifications for independent live music venues and administering federal programs that support independent live music venues, operators, producers, or promoters.

It is assumed that any costs associated with the bill could be absorbed using existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Source Agencies: 300 Trusteed Programs - Gov

LBB Staff: JMc, AJL, LCO, HGR