

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 87TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 8, 2021

TO: Honorable Andrew S. Murr, Chair, House Committee on Corrections

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3432 by Murr (Relating to the civil commitment of sexually violent predators.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would require the Texas Civil Commitment Office to report a change in address of a person who is civilly committed as a sexually violent predator and resides in a location other than the civil commitment center to each local law enforcement authority serving as the current or proposed primary registration authority for the person to register as a sex offender.

This analysis assumes the provisions of the bill would not result in a significant impact on state correctional populations or on the demand for state correctional resources.

This analysis assumes there would be a minimal cost associated with implementing the provisions of the bill that could be absorbed within current resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
