IN RE: HB3547 by Allen (Relating to the eligibility of certain criminal defendants for an order of nondisclosure of criminal history record information; authorizing a fee.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

It is assumed that the costs associated with the bill's provisions relating to the eligibility of certain criminal defendants for an order of nondisclosure of criminal history record information and authorizing a fee could be absorbed using existing resources.

This analysis assumes the provisions of the bill would not result in a significant impact on state correctional populations or on the demand for state correctional resources.

Local Government Impact
