Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 87TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 5, 2021

TO: Honorable Chris Turner, Chair, House Committee on Business & Industry

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3852 by Raney (relating to a study by the attorney general of the online resale of consumer goods obtained illegally and the online sale or distribution of counterfeit goods.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would require a study by the Office of the Attorney General of the online resale of consumer goods obtained illegally and the online sale of distribution of counterfeit goods.

It is assumed that any costs associated with the bill could be absorbed by the Office of the Attorney General using existing resources.

According to the Comptroller's Office, the fiscal impact from the bill cannot be estimated.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
