Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 87TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 18, 2021

TO: Honorable Nicole Collier, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB4338 by Johnson, Ann (Relating to the duty of the attorney general to represent community supervision and corrections departments in certain habeas corpus proceedings.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Texas Government Code relating to the duty of the Office of the Attorney General to represent community supervision and corrections departments in certain habeas corpus proceedings.

It is assumed that any costs associated with the bill could be absorbed by the Office of the Attorney General using existing resources.

According to the Department of Criminal Justice, no fiscal impact is anticipated from the bill.

Local Government Impact

The Texas Association of Counties does not anticipate a significant fiscal impact to counties.
