

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 87TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 16, 2021

TO: Honorable Victoria Neave, Chair, House Committee on Juvenile Justice & Family Issues

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB4381 by White (Relating to requiring notice to parties in certain suits affecting the parent-child relationship of options for periods of possession of or access to a child under a standard possession order.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Family Code to provide that if the petitioner requests the establishment or modification of periods of possession of or access to a child, the citation must include notice of the options for periods of possession of or access to a child under a standard possession order under Chapter 153, Subchapter F.

The bill would amend the Civil Practice and Remedies Code to provide that if a pending dispute concerns the establishment or modification of periods of possession of or access to a child, the notification must include notice of the options for periods of possession of or access to a child under a standard possession order under Family Code Chapter 153, Subchapter F.

Based on information provided by the Office of Court Administration, no significant fiscal impact to the state court system is anticipated as a result from implementing the provisions of the bill.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
