

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 87TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 26, 2021

TO: Honorable Joe Deshotel, Chair, House Committee on Land & Resource Management

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB4496 by Hinojosa (Relating to municipal and county building codes.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Chapter 388 of the Health and Safety Code to adopt the International Residential Code, as it exists on May 1, 2021, as the energy code for single-family residential construction. The bill would take effect January 1, 2022.

It is assumed that the costs associated with the bill's provisions relating to municipal and county building codes could be absorbed using existing resources.

Local Government Impact

According to the Texas Association of Counties, no significant fiscal implication to counties is anticipated.

According to the Texas Municipal League, no fiscal implication to municipalities is anticipated.
