

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 87TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 19, 2021

TO: Honorable Joan Huffman, Chair, Senate Committee on Jurisprudence

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB4661 by Thompson, Senfronia (Relating to sexual harassment by lobbyists and certain elected or appointed state officers.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code to require sexual harassment training for certain persons and would establish certain administrative penalties for sexual harassment to be assessed by the Texas Ethics Commission (TEC).

While the TEC indicates there would be a cost to the agency related to the mailing of notices of non-compliance to registered lobbyists, this analysis assumes those costs could be absorbed with existing agency resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
