

PUBLIC COMMENTS

HB 829

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON URBAN AFFAIRS

Hearing Date: April 7, 2021 10:30 AM - or upon final adjourn./recess or bill referral if permission granted

Nalin Kapoor
self, consultant

Pflugerville, TX

I support this bill.

Evan Kudler

Self

Austin, TX

I support HB 829 and urge its adoption to decrease police misconduct in Texas and protect the people served by the police.

Katherine Danaher

Self

Austin, TX

Police abuse and brutality will never end if officers are not held accountable. Officer Chauvin had a slew of disciplinary issues but was able to be shuffled around between departments, ultimately resulting in his ability to murder an innocent person. There is nothing truly progressive about standardized policies for disciplining employees. This is necessary.

Alyssa Gordon

Law Students for Black Lives

Houston, TX

Pass HB 829! Support Black lives, police accountability, and safer communities!

Shinjini Ray

Self- University of Texas law student

Austin, TX

This bill is vital for establishing a fair and uniformly applicable standard of behavior for law enforcement officers that will help reinforce acceptable behavior in the community.

Melissa Connelly

Self/ teacher

Austin, TX

I am writing in support of this bill. I feel it is vital that police be held accountable for their actions and that citizens feel protected

Printed on: April 12, 2021 4:20 PM and safe rather than threatened. A structure of disciplinary actions is vital for all.