H.B. No. 22

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

1 AN ACT
2 relating to abortion, including civil liability for distribution of 3 abortion-inducing drugs and duties of Internet service providers; 4 creating a criminal offense; authorizing a private civil right of 5 action.

6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

7 SECTION 1. This Act shall be known as the Women and Child 8 Safety Act.

9 SECTION 2. The legislature finds that:

- 10 (1) human life begins at fertilization;
- 11 (2) abortion is a murderous act of violence that 12 purposefully and knowingly terminates a human life in the womb;
- 13 (3) unborn human beings are entitled to the full and 14 equal protection of the laws that prohibit violence against other 15 human beings;
- 16 (4) the United States Supreme Court's ruling in Dobbs
17 v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, No. 19-1392 (U.S. June 24, 18 2022), correctly overruled the lawless and unconstitutional 19 pronouncements in Roe v. Wade, 410 U.S. 113 (1973) and Planned
20 Parenthood of Southern Pennsylvania v. Casey, 505 U.S. 833 (1992), 21 which had invented and perpetuated a supposed constitutional right 22 to abortion that cannot be found anywhere in the text of the United 23 States Constitution;
- 24 (5) so-called abortion funds that operate in this

1 state have been funding and otherwise aiding or abetting criminal 2 abortions performed in violation of the laws of this state, 3 exposing themselves and each of their donors to felony criminal 4 prosecution;

5 (6) the abortion funds and their donors are not and 6 never were protected by an injunction in any abortion-related case 7 because they are not parties to those cases, and there has never 8 been an injunction that restrains a state official from prosecuting 9 abortion funds and their donors who aided or abetted abortions 10 performed in violation of the laws of this state;

11 (7) the abortion funds and their donors are not and 12 never were protected from criminal prosecution by Roe v. Wade, 410 13 U.S. 113 (1973), because:

14 (A) there is no constitutional right to pay for 15 another person's abortion;

16 (B) abortion funds and their donors lack 17 third-party standing to assert the supposed constitutional rights 18 of women seeking abortions; and 19 (C) any immunity from prosecution that the 20 abortionist might have enjoyed on account of Roe does not preclude 21 the imposition of accomplice liability on abortion funds and their 22 donors;

23 (8) it is a federal crime to mail abortion-inducing
24 drugs or to receive them in the mail, punishable by five years
25 imprisonment, under 18 U.S.C. Section 1461;

26 (9) it is also a federal crime to transport 27 abortion-inducing drugs in interstate or foreign commerce under 18

1 U.S.C. Section 1462(c);

2 (10) these federal statutes are fully enforceable now
3 that Roe has been overruled, and the statute of limitations for each 4 of these crimes is five years;

5 (11) violations of 18 U.S.C. Sections 1461-1462 are 6 predicate offenses under the federal Racketeer Influenced and 7 Corrupt Organizations Act (18 U.S.C. Section 1961 et seq.), which 8 exposes distribution networks of abortion-inducing drugs and their 9 donors to civil racketeering liability as well as criminal 10 prosecution as a racketeering enterprise under federal law;

11 (12) the legislature calls on the attorney general and 12 each district attorney in this state to investigate and prosecute 13 abortion funds and each of their donors for aiding or abetting 14 criminal abortion in this state in violation of the laws of this 15 state; and

16 (13) the legislature calls on state and federal 17 prosecutors in this state to investigate and prosecute every 18 distribution network for abortion-inducing drugs under federal 19 racketeering laws as well as 18 U.S.C. Sections 1461-1462.

20 SECTION 3. Subtitle H, Title 2, Health and Safety Code, is 21 amended by adding Chapter 171A to read as follows:

22 CHAPTER 171A. ABORTION-INDUCING DRUGS AND FACILITATION OF

23 ABORTION; ENFORCEMENT OF ABORTION LAWS

24 SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

25 Sec. 171A.001. DEFINITIONS. In this chapter:

26 (1) "Abortion" means the act of using, prescribing, 27 administering, procuring, or selling an instrument, medicine,

1 drug, or any other substance, device, or means with the purpose to 2 terminate a pregnancy of a woman, with knowledge that the 3 termination by any of those means will with reasonable likelihood 4 cause the death of a living human being in the womb. The term does 5 not include:

6 (A) in vitro fertilization or fertility
7 treatments of any type;

8 (B) the use, prescription, administration,
9 procuring, or selling of an emergency contraceptive, including Plan 10 B and morning-after pills, intrauterine devices, or any other type 11 of contraceptive; or

12 (C) an act performed with the purpose to:

13 (i) save the life or preserve the health of 14 the unborn child;

15 (ii) remove a dead unborn child caused by 16 spontaneous abortion; or

17 (iii) remove or treat an ectopic pregnancy.

18 (2) "Abortion-inducing drug" means a drug or 19 medication, including mifepristone and misoprostol, that is used to 20 terminate the life of an unborn child. The term does not include:

21 (A) an emergency contraceptive, including Plan B 22 and morning-after pills, intrauterine devices, or any other type of 23 contraceptive; or

24 (B) drugs or medications that are possessed or 25 distributed for a purpose that does not include the termination of a 26 pregnancy, including for the treatment of an unrelated medical 27 condition.

1 (3) "Abortion funds" means a corporation,
2 organization, government, governmental agency, business trust,
3 estate, trust, partnership, association, or any other legal entity 4 that:

5 (A) exists for the purpose of aiding or abetting 6 elective abortions; and

7 (B) pays for, reimburses, or subsidizes in any 8 way the costs associated with obtaining an elective abortion.

9 (4) "Abortion provider" means a person who performs 10 elective abortions.

11 (5) "Elective abortion" means an abortion other than 12 those performed or induced in response to a medical emergency.

13 (6) "Fertilization" means the fusion of a human 14 spermatozoon with a human ovum.

15 (7) "Governmental entity" means this state, a state 16 agency, or a political subdivision of this state.

17 (8) "Human being" means an individual member of the 18 species homo sapiens at any state of development beginning at 19 fertilization.

20 (9) "Information content provider" means a person who 21 is responsible, wholly or partly, for the creation or development 22 of information provided through the Internet or any other 23 interactive computer service.

24 (10) "Interactive computer service" means an 25 information service, system, or access software provider that 26 provides or enables computer access by multiple users to a computer 27 server, including specifically a service or system that provides

1 access to the Internet and such systems operated or services 2 offered by libraries or educational institutions.

3 (11) "Medical emergency" means a condition in which an 4 abortion is necessary to preserve the life of a pregnant woman whose 5 life is endangered by a physical disorder, physical illness, or 6 physical injury, including a life-endangering physical condition 7 caused by or arising from the pregnancy itself.

8 (12) "Unborn child" means an individual organism of 9 the species homo sapiens in any stage of gestation from 10 fertilization until live birth.

11 (13) "Woman" means an individual whose biological sex 12 is female, including an individual with XX chromosomes and an 13 individual with a uterus, regardless of any gender identity that 14 the individual attempts to assert or claim.

15 SUBCHAPTER B. PROTECTION FROM ABORTION-INDUCING DRUGS

16 Sec. 171A.051. PROHIBITIONS RELATED TO ABORTION-INDUCING
17 DRUGS. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b), a person may not:

18 (1) manufacture, possess, or distribute an 19 abortion-inducing drug in this state;

20 (2) mail, transport, deliver, or provide an 21 abortion-inducing drug in any manner to or from any person or 22 location in this state;

23 (3) provide information on how to obtain an 24 abortion-inducing drug;

25 (4) create, edit, upload, publish, host, maintain, or 26 register a domain name for an Internet website, platform, or other 27 interactive computer service that assists or facilitates a person's

1 effort in obtaining an abortion-inducing drug;

2 (5) create, edit, program, or distribute any 3 application or software for use on a computer or an electronic 4 device that is intended to enable individuals to obtain an 5 abortion-inducing drug or to facilitate an individual's access to 6 an abortion-inducing drug; or

7 (6) engage in conduct that would make a person
8 criminally responsible under Chapter 7, Penal Code, as a party to a 9 criminal act described by Subdivision (1) or (2).

10 (b) Notwithstanding any other law, Subsection (a) does not 11 prohibit:

12 (1) speech or conduct protected by the First Amendment
13 of the United States Constitution, as made applicable to the states 14 through the United States Supreme Court's interpretation of the 15 Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution or protected 16 by Section 8, Article I, Texas Constitution;

17 (2) conduct this state is prohibited from regulating 18 under federal law, including the United States Constitution;

19 (3) conduct engaged in by a pregnant woman who aborts 20 or attempts to abort the woman's unborn child;

21 (4) possessing, distributing, mailing, transporting,
22 delivering, or providing an abortion-inducing drug for a purpose 23 that does not include performing, inducing, or attempting an 24 abortion;

25 (5) possessing an abortion-inducing drug for purposes 26 of entrapping a person that violates this section;

27 (6) conduct engaged in by a person as directed by a

1 federal agency, contractor, or employee to carry out a duty under 2 federal law, if prohibiting that conduct would violate the 3 doctrines of preemption or intergovernmental immunity; or 4 (7) conduct described by Section 171A.201(a)(1), (2), 5 or (3).

6 SUBCHAPTER C. CIVIL LIABILITY FOR DISTRIBUTION OF 7 ABORTION-INDUCING DRUGS

8 Sec. 171A.101. CIVIL ACTION FOR DISTRIBUTION OF 9 ABORTION-INDUCING DRUGS. (a) Notwithstanding any other law and 10 except as provided by this section, a person who manufactures, 11 distributes, mails, transports, delivers, or provides an 12 abortion-inducing drug in violation of Section 171A.051 or who aids 13 or abets the manufacture, distribution, mailing, transportation, 14 delivery, or provision of an abortion-inducing drug in violation of 15 Section 171A.051, or who otherwise engages in any conduct 16 prohibited by Section 171A.051 is strictly and jointly and 17 severally liable for:

18 (1) the wrongful death of an unborn child or pregnant 19 woman from the use of the abortion-inducing drug; and 20 (2) personal injury of an unborn child or pregnant 21 woman from the use of the abortion-inducing drug.

22 (b) A claimant may not bring an action under this section if 23 the action is preempted by 47 U.S.C. Section 230(c).

24 (c) Notwithstanding any other law, a civil action may not be 25 brought under this section:

26 (1) against the woman who used or sought to obtain 27 abortion-inducing drugs to abort or attempt to abort her unborn

1 child;

2 (2) against a person that acted at the behest of a
3 federal agency, contractor, or employee who is carrying out duties 4 under federal law if the imposition of liability would violate the 5 doctrines of preemption or intergovernmental immunity; or

6 (3) by any person who impregnated the woman who used 7 abortion-inducing drugs through conduct constituting an offense
8 under Section 21.02, 21.11, 22.011, 22.021, or 25.02, Penal Code, 9 or by another person who acts in concert or participation with that 10 person.

11 (d) Notwithstanding any other law, including rules of civil 12 procedure adopted under Chapter 26, Civil Practice and Remedies
13 Code, an action brought under this section may not be litigated on 14 behalf of a claimant class or a defendant class, and no court may 15 certify a class in the action.

16 Sec. 171A.102. DEFENSES. (a) It is an affirmative defense
17 to an action brought under Section 171A.101 that the defendant:

18 (1) was unaware that the defendant was engaged in the 19 conduct described by Section 171A.101(a); and

20 (2) took every reasonable precaution to ensure that 21 the defendant would not manufacture, distribute, mail, transport, 22 deliver, provide, or aid or abet the manufacture, distribution, 23 mail, transportation, delivery, or provision of abortion-inducing 24 drugs.

25 (b) A defendant has the burden of proving an affirmative
26 defense under Subsection (a) by a preponderance of the evidence.

27 (c) Notwithstanding any other law, the following are not a

- 1 defense to an action brought under this section:
- 2 (1) ignorance or mistake of law;
- 3 (2) a defendant's belief that the requirements or 4 provisions of this chapter are unconstitutional or were 5 unconstitutional;
- 6 (3) a defendant's reliance on a court decision that has 7 been vacated, reversed, or overruled on appeal or by a subsequent 8 court, even if that court decision had not been vacated, reversed,
9 or overruled when the cause of action accrued;
- 10 (4) a defendant's reliance on a state or federal court
11 decision that is not binding on the court in which the action has 12 been brought;
- 13 (5) a defendant's reliance on a federal statute,
14 agency rule or action, or treaty that has been repealed,
15 superseded, or declared invalid or unconstitutional, even if that 16 federal statute, agency rule or action, or treaty had not been 17 repealed, superseded, or declared invalid or unconstitutional when 18 the cause of action accrued;
- 19 (6) non-mutual issue preclusion or non-mutual claim
20 preclusion;
- 21 (7) the consent of the claimant or the unborn child's 22 mother to the abortion;
- 23 (8) contributory or comparative negligence;
- 24 (9) assumption of risk; or
- 25 (10) a claim that the enforcement of this chapter or 26 the imposition of civil liability against the defendant will 27 violate the constitutional rights of third parties.

1 Sec. 171A.103. APPORTIONED LIABILITY. Notwithstanding any 2 other law, if a claimant who brings an action under Section 171A.101 3 is unable to identify the specific manufacturer of the 4 abortion-inducing drug that caused the death or injury that is the 5 basis for the action, the liability is apportioned among all 6 manufacturers of abortion-inducing drugs in proportion to each 7 manufacturer's share of the market for abortion-inducing drugs.

8 Sec. 171A.104. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. Notwithstanding any 9 other law, a person may bring an action under Section 171A.101 not 10 later than the sixth anniversary of the date the cause of action
11 accrues.

12 Sec. 171A.105. WAIVER PROHIBITED. A waiver or purported 13 waiver of the right to bring an action under Section 171A.101 is 14 void as against public policy and is not enforceable in any court.

15 Sec. 171A.106. CONSTRUCTION OF SUBCHAPTER. This subchapter
16 may not be construed to impose liability on speech or conduct
17 protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, 18 as made applicable to the states through the United States Supreme 19 Court's interpretation of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United 20 States Constitution or protected by Section 8, Article I, Texas
21 Constitution.

22 Sec. 171A.107. JURISDICTION; APPLICABILITY OF STATE LAW.
23 (a) Notwithstanding any other law, including Subchapter C, Chapter
24 17, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, the courts of this state have 25 personal jurisdiction over a defendant sued under Section 171A.101
26 to the maximum extent permitted by the Fourteenth Amendment to the 27 United States Constitution.

1 (b) Notwithstanding any other law, the law of this state 2 applies to the use of an abortion-inducing drug by a resident of 3 this state, regardless of where the use of the drug occurs, and to 4 an action brought under Section 171A.101 to the maximum extent
5 permitted by the United States Constitution.

6 (c) Chapters 27 and 110, Civil Practice and Remedies Code,
7 do not apply to an action brought under Section 171A.101.

8 SUBCHAPTER D. PRIVATE CIVIL ENFORCEMENT OF PROHIBITIONS RELATING TO

10 Sec. 171A.151. CIVIL ACTION AUTHORIZED. (a) Except as 11 provided by this section, a person, other than this state, a 12 political subdivision of this state, and an officer or employee of 13 this state or a political subdivision of this state, has standing to 14 bring and may bring a civil action against a person who:

15 (1) violates Section 171A.051; or

16 (2) intends to violate Section 171A.051.

17 (b) A claimant may not bring an action under this section if 18 the action is preempted by 47 U.S.C. Section 230(c).

19 (c) Notwithstanding any other law, a civil action may not be 20 brought under this section:

21 (1) against the woman who used or sought to obtain
22 abortion-inducing drugs to abort or attempt to abort her unborn
23 child;

24 (2) against a person that acted at the behest of a
25 federal agency, contractor, or employee who is carrying out duties 26 under federal law if the imposition of liability would violate the 27 doctrines of preemption or intergovernmental immunity; or

1 (3) by any person who impregnated the woman who used or 2 sought to obtain abortion-inducing drugs through conduct 3 constituting an offense under Section 21.02, 21.11, 22.011, 22.021, 4 or 25.02, Penal Code, or by another person who acts in concert or 5 participation with that person.

6 (d) Notwithstanding any other law, including rules of civil
7 procedure adopted under Chapter 26, Civil Practice and Remedies
8 Code, an action brought under this section may not be litigated on 9 behalf of a claimant class or a defendant class, and no court may 10 certify a class in the action.

11 Sec. 171A.152. DEFENSES. (a) It is an affirmative defense
12 to an action brought under Section 171A.151 that the defendant:

13 (1) was unaware that the defendant was engaged in the 14 conduct prohibited by Section 171A.051; and

15 (2) took every reasonable precaution to ensure that 16 the defendant would not violate Section 171A.051.

17 (b) A defendant has the burden of proving an affirmative
18 defense under Subsection (a) by a preponderance of the evidence.

19 (c) Notwithstanding any other law, the following are not a
20 defense to an action brought under this section:

21 (1) ignorance or mistake of law;

22 (2) a defendant's belief that the requirements or 23 provisions of this chapter are unconstitutional or were 24 unconstitutional;

25 (3) a defendant's reliance on a court decision that has 26 been vacated, reversed, or overruled on appeal or by a subsequent 27 court, even if that court decision had not been vacated, reversed,

1 or overruled when the cause of action accrued;

2 (4) a defendant's reliance on a state or federal court
3 decision that is not binding on the court in which the action has 4 been brought;

5 (5) a defendant's reliance on a federal statute,
6 agency rule or action, or treaty that has been repealed,
7 superseded, or declared invalid or unconstitutional, even if that 8 federal statute, agency rule or action, or treaty had not been 9 repealed, superseded, or declared invalid or unconstitutional when 10 the cause of action accrued;

11 (6) non-mutual issue preclusion or non-mutual claim
12 preclusion;

13 (7) the consent of the claimant or the unborn child's 14 mother to the abortion;

15 (8) contributory or comparative negligence;

16 (9) assumption of risk; or

17 (10) a claim that the enforcement of this chapter or 18 the imposition of civil liability against the defendant will 19 violate the constitutional rights of third parties.

20 Sec. 171A.153. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. Notwithstanding any 21 other law, a person may bring an action under Section 171A.151 not 22 later than the sixth anniversary of the date the cause of action
23 accrues.

24 Sec. 171A.154. REMEDIES. (a) Except as provided by 25 Subsection (c), if a claimant prevails in an action brought under 26 Section 171A.151, the court shall award:

27 (1) injunctive relief sufficient to prevent the

1 defendant from violating Section 171A.051;

2 (2) nominal damages or compensatory damages if the 3 claimant has suffered injury or harm from the defendant's conduct, 4 including loss of consortium and emotional distress;

5 (3) statutory damages in an amount of not less than 6 $10,000 for each violation of Section 171A.051; and

7 (4) costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

8 (b) A court may not award relief under Subsection (a)(3) or 9 (a)(4) in response to a violation of Section 171A.051 if the 10 defendant demonstrates that a court has already ordered the 11 defendant to pay the full amount of statutory damages under 12 Subsection (a)(3) in another action for that particular violation.

13 (c) A court may not award costs or attorney's fees to a 14 defendant against whom an action is brought under Section 171A.151.

15 Sec. 171A.155. CONSTRUCTION OF SUBCHAPTER. This subchapter
16 may not be construed to impose liability on speech or conduct
17 protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, 18 as made applicable to the states through the United States Supreme 19 Court's interpretation of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United 20 States Constitution or protected by Section 8, Article I, Texas
21 Constitution.

22 Sec. 171A.156. PUBLIC ENFORCEMENT PROHIBITED. (a)
23 Notwithstanding any other law, this state, a political subdivision
24 of this state, or an officer or employee of this state or a
25 political subdivision of this state may not:

26 (1) act in concert or participation with a claimant
27 bringing an action under Section 171A.151;

1 (2) establish or attempt to establish any type of 2 agency or fiduciary relationship with a claimant bringing an action
3 under Section 171A.151;

4 (3) make any attempt to control or influence a person's 5 decision to bring an action under Section 171A.151 or that person's 6 conduct of the litigation; or

7 (4) intervene in an action brought under Section
8 171A.151.

9 (b) This section does not prohibit a governmental entity or 10 officer or employee of a governmental entity from filing an amicus 11 curiae brief in an action brought under Section 171A.151 if the 12 entity, officer, or employee does not act in concert or 13 participation with the claimant.

14 Sec. 171A.157. JURISDICTION; APPLICABILITY OF STATE LAW.

15 (a) Notwithstanding any other law, including Subchapter C, Chapter
16 17, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, the courts of this state have 17 personal jurisdiction over a defendant sued under Section 171A.151
18 to the maximum extent permitted by the Fourteenth Amendment to the 19 United States Constitution.

20 (b) Notwithstanding any other law, the law of this state
21 applies to an action brought under Section 171A.151 to the maximum 22 extent permitted by the United States Constitution.

23 (c) Chapters 27 and 110, Civil Practice and Remedies Code,
24 do not apply to an action brought under Section 171A.151.

25 SUBCHAPTER E. PRIVATE CIVIL ENFORCEMENT AGAINST INTERACTIVE

26 COMPUTER SERVICES FACILITATING ABORTION

27 Sec. 171A.201. CIVIL ACTION AGAINST INTERACTIVE COMPUTER

1 SERVICE PROVIDER. (a) A person, other than this state, a political 2 subdivision of this state, and an officer or employee of this state 3 or a political subdivision of this state, has standing to bring and 4 may bring a civil action against a person who provides or maintains:

5 (1) an interactive computer service that allows 6 residents of this state to access information or material that 7 assists or facilitates efforts to obtain elective abortions or 8 abortion-inducing drugs;

9 (2) a platform for downloading any application or 10 software for use on a computer or electronic device that is designed 11 to assist or facilitate efforts to obtain elective abortions or 12 abortion-inducing drugs; or

13 (3) a platform that allows or enables those who 14 provide or aid or abet elective abortions, or those who 15 manufacture, distribute, mail, transport, deliver, or provide 16 abortion-inducing drugs, to collect money, digital currency, 17 resources, or any other thing of value in connection with that 18 conduct.

19 (b) Notwithstanding any other law, including rules of civil 20 procedure adopted under Chapter 26, Civil Practice and Remedies
21 Code, an action brought under this section may not be litigated on 22 behalf of a claimant class or a defendant class, and no court may 23 certify a class in the action.

24 Sec. 171A.202. DEFENSES. (a) It is an affirmative defense
25 to an action brought under Section 171A.201 that the defendant:

26 (1) was unaware that the defendant's interactive 27 computer service or platform was being used to assist or facilitate

1 efforts to obtain elective abortions or abortion-inducing drugs; 2 and

3 (2) on learning that the defendant's interactive
4 computer service or platform was being used to assist or facilitate 5 efforts to obtain elective abortions or abortion-inducing drugs, 6 took prompt action to:

7 (A) block access to any information, material, 8 application, or software that assists or facilitates efforts to 9 obtain elective abortions or abortion-inducing drugs; and 10 (B) block those who provide or aid or abet

11 elective abortions and those who manufacture, distribute, mail, 12 transport, deliver, or provide abortion-inducing drugs, from 13 collecting money, digital currency, resources, or any other thing 14 of value through its interactive computer service or platform.

15 (b) A defendant has the burden of proving an affirmative
16 defense under Subsection (a) by a preponderance of the evidence.

17 Sec. 171A.203. REMEDIES. (a) Except as provided by 18 Subsection (b), if a claimant prevails in an action brought under 19 Section 171A.201, the court shall award only declaratory or 20 injunctive relief. A court may not award:

21 (1) damages in the action, even if the claimant 22 demonstrates harm from the defendant's conduct; or 23 (2) a prevailing claimant's attorney's fees or costs.

24 (b) A court may not award relief under Subsection (a) if the 25 action was brought in response to:

26 (1) the exercise of a constitutional right that 27 belongs personally to the defendant;

1 (2) conduct engaged in at the direction of a federal 2 agency, contractor, or employee who is carrying out a duty under 3 federal law, if the relief authorized by Subsection (a) would 4 violate the doctrines of preemption or intergovernmental immunity;
5 or

6 (3) conduct engaged in by a woman who aborted or 7 attempted to abort her unborn child, if that woman is the named 8 defendant in the action.

9 Sec. 171A.204. RELATION TO OTHER INFORMATION CONTENT
10 PROVIDERS. A person who engages in conduct described by Section 11 171A.201(a)(1), (2), or (3) may not be:

12 (1) held vicariously liable for nominal, statutory, or 13 compensatory damages incurred by another information content 14 provider;

15 (2) held liable or legally responsible for the conduct 16 of a publisher or speaker of any information provided by another 17 information content provider; or

18 (3) treated as the speaker or publisher of any 19 information provided by another information content provider under 20 any provision of the laws of this state.

21 Sec. 171A.205. EXCLUSIVE ENFORCEMENT; EFFECT OF OTHER LAW.

22 (a) Notwithstanding any other law, conduct described by Section 23 171A.201(1), (2), or (3) is not subject to criminal, civil, or 24 administrative liability except solely through the private civil 25 action described by Section 171A.201. This state, a political 26 subdivision of this state, or an officer or employee of this state 27 or a political subdivision of this state may not take a direct or

1 indirect enforcement action under this subchapter against any 2 person, by any means.

3 (b) Except as provided by Subsection (c), a person may not 4 use conduct described by Section 171A.201(1), (2), or (3) as a 5 justification for the enforcement of any other law or any type of 6 adverse consequence under any other law except as provided by 7 Section 171A.201.

8 (c) This section does not preclude or limit the enforcement 9 of any other law or regulation against conduct that is 10 independently prohibited by that other law or regulation.

11 Sec. 171A.206. PUBLIC ENFORCEMENT PROHIBITED. (a)
12 Notwithstanding any other law, this state, a political subdivision
13 of this state, or an officer or employee of this state or a
14 political subdivision of this state may not:

15 (1) act in concert or participation with a claimant
16 bringing an action under Section 171A.201;

17 (2) establish or attempt to establish any type of 18 agency or fiduciary relationship with a claimant bringing an action
19 under Section 171A.201;

20 (3) make any attempt to control or influence a person's 21 decision to bring an action under Section 171A.201 or that person's 22 conduct of the litigation; or

23 (4) intervene in an action brought under Section
24 171A.201.

25 (b) This section does not prohibit a governmental entity or 26 officer or employee of a governmental entity from filing an amicus
27 curiae brief in an action brought under Section 171A.201 if the

1 entity, officer, or employee does not act in concert or
2 participation with the claimant.

3 Sec. 171A.207. JURISDICTION; APPLICABILITY OF STATE LAW.

4 (a) Notwithstanding any other law, including Subchapter C, Chapter
5 17, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, the courts of this state have 6 personal jurisdiction over a defendant sued under Section 171A.201
7 to the maximum extent permitted by the Fourteenth Amendment to the 8 United States Constitution.

9 (b) Notwithstanding any other law, the law of this state
10 applies to an action brought under Section 171A.201 to the maximum 11 extent permitted by the United States Constitution.

12 (c) Chapters 27 and 110, Civil Practice and Remedies Code,
13 do not apply to an action brought under Section 171A.151.

14 Sec. 171A.208. INTERACTIVE COMPUTER SERVICE USER OR 15 PROVIDER IMMUNITY FOR CERTAIN ACTIONS. Notwithstanding any other 16 law, a provider or user of an interactive computer service has 17 absolute and nonwaivable immunity from liability or suit for:

18 (1) an action taken to restrict access to or 19 availability of information or material that assists or facilitates 20 access to elective abortions or abortion-inducing drugs, 21 regardless of whether the information or material is 22 constitutionally protected;

23 (2) an action taken to enable or make available to 24 information content providers or others the technical means to 25 restrict access to information or material described by Subdivision 26 (1); or

27 (3) a denial of service to persons who provide or aid

1 or abet elective abortions or who manufacture, mail, distribute, 2 transport, or provide abortion-inducing drugs.

3 SUBCHAPTER F. PROVISIONS GENERALLY APPLICABLE TO CIVIL LIABILITY
4 FOR FACILITATING ABORTION

5 Sec. 171A.251. AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE. (a) A defendant
6 against whom an action is brought under Section 171A.101, 171A.151, 7 or 171A.201 may assert an affirmative defense to liability under 8 this section if:

9 (1) the imposition of civil liability on the defendant 10 will violate constitutional or federally protected rights that 11 belong to the defendant personally; or

12 (2) the defendant:

13 (A) has standing to assert the rights of a third 14 party under the tests for third-party standing established by the 15 United States Supreme Court; and

16 (B) demonstrates that the imposition of civil 17 liability on the defendant will violate constitutional or federally 18 protected rights belonging to a third party.

19 (b) The defendant has the burden of proving an affirmative 20 defense described by Subsection (a) by a preponderance of the 21 evidence.

22 Sec. 171A.252. CONSTRUCTION OF CHAPTER WITH RESPECT TO 23 CIVIL LIABILITY AND ENFORCEMENT. This chapter may not be construed 24 to limit or preclude a defendant from asserting the 25 unconstitutionality of any provision or application of the laws of 26 this state as a defense to liability under Section 171A.101, 27 171A.151, or 171A.201 or from asserting any other defense that

1 might be available under any other source of law.

2 Sec. 171A.253. APPLICATION OF OTHER LAW. Notwithstanding 3 any other law, a court may not apply the law of another state or 4 jurisdiction to any civil action brought under Section 171A.101, 5 171A.151, or 171A.201 unless Article VI of the United States
6 Constitution compels it to do so.

7 Sec. 171A.254. VENUE. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, a 8 civil action brought under Section 171A.101, 171A.151, or 171A.201 9 must be brought in:

10 (1) the county in which all or a substantial part of 11 the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred;

12 (2) the county of a defendant's residence at the time 13 the cause of action accrued if a defendant is an individual;

14 (3) the county of the principal office in this state of 15 a defendant that is not an individual; or 16 (4) the county of the claimant's residence if the 17 claimant is an individual residing in this state.

18 (b) If a civil action is brought under Section 171A.101, 19 171A.151, or 171A.201 in a venue described by Subsection (a), the 20 action may not be transferred to a different venue without the 21 written consent of all parties.

22 Sec. 171A.255. PROTECTION FROM COUNTER ACTIONS. If an 23 action brought against a person or liability imposed in a judgment 24 entered against a person is wholly or partly based on the person's 25 decision to bring or threat to bring an action under Section 26 171A.101, 171A.151, or 171A.201, the person may recover damages 27 from the claimant who brought the action or obtained the judgment or

1 who has sought to enforce the judgment. The damages include:

2 (1) compensatory damages created by the action or 3 judgment, including money damages in an amount of the judgment and 4 costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees spent in defending 5 the action;

6 (2) costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees
7 incurred in bringing an action under this section; and

8 (3) additional statutory damages in an amount of not 9 less than $100,000.

10 SUBCHAPTER G. INTERNET SERVICE PROVIDER DUTIES

11 Sec. 171A.301. RESTRICTIONS ON ACCESS TO CERTAIN

12 INFORMATION AND MATERIALS ACCESSIBLE THROUGH CERTAIN INTERNET
13 WEBSITES. Each Internet service provider that provides Internet 14 services in this state shall make every reasonable and 15 technologically feasible effort to block Internet access to 16 information or material intended to assist or facilitate efforts to 17 obtain an elective abortion or an abortion-inducing drug, including 18 information or material accessible through:

19 (1) the following Internet websites:

20 (A) aidaccess.org;

21 (B) heyjane.co;

22 (C) plancpills.org;

23 (D) mychoix.co;

24 (E) justthepill.com; and 25 (F) carafem.org;

26 (2) an Internet website, platform, or other 27 interactive computer service operated by or on behalf of an

1 abortion provider or abortion fund;

2 (3) an Internet website, platform, or other
3 interactive computer service for downloading any application or 4 software for use on a computer or electronic device that is designed 5 to assist or facilitate efforts to obtain an elective abortion or an 6 abortion-inducing drug; or

7 (4) an Internet website, platform, or other
8 interactive computer service that allows or enables those who 9 provide or aid or abet elective abortions, or those who 10 manufacture, mail, distribute, transport, or provide 11 abortion-inducing drugs, to collect money, digital currency,
12 resources, or any other thing of value.

13 Sec. 171A.302. NOTIFICATION TO INTERNET SERVICE PROVIDER.
14 A person who becomes aware that information or material described 15 by Section 171A.301 is accessible through an Internet service 16 provider that provides Internet services in this state may notify 17 the provider and request that the provider block access to the 18 information or material in accordance with that section. A person 19 may provide the notification by:

20 (1) calling the provider's customer support number and 21 providing a precise description and location of the information or 22 material; or

23 (2) mailing a letter to the provider that includes a 24 precise description and location of the information or material.

25 Sec. 171A.303. PUBLIC ENFORCEMENT PROHIBITED. (a)
26 Notwithstanding any other law, direct or indirect enforcement of 27 this subchapter may not be taken or threatened by this state or a

1 political subdivision of this state, or by any officer, employee, 2 or agent of this state or a political subdivision of this state, by 3 any means.

4 (b) This state, a political subdivision of this state, or an 5 officer, employee, or agent of this state or a political 6 subdivision of this state may request or encourage an Internet 7 service provider to comply with the requirements of this 8 subchapter.

9 Sec. 171A.304. LIABILITY; RECOVERY OF DAMAGES. (a) 10 Notwithstanding any other law, an Internet service provider that 11 provides Internet services in this state has absolute and 12 nonwaivable immunity from liability or suit for:

13 (1) an action taken to comply with the requirements of 14 this subchapter, or to restrict access to or availability of the 15 information or material described by Section 171A.301;

16 (2) an action taken to enable or make available to 17 information content providers or others the technical means to 18 restrict access to information or material described by Section 19 171A.301; or

20 (3) a denial of service to persons who use or seek to 21 use the Internet to make available information or material 22 described by Section 171A.301.

23 (b) An Internet service provider against whom an action is 24 brought or a judgment is entered in state or federal court that is 25 wholly or partly based on the provider's compliance with the 26 requirements of this subchapter may recover damages from a claimant 27 that brought the action or obtained the judgment or who has sought

1 to enforce the judgment. The damages include:

2 (1) compensatory damages created by the action or
3 judgment, including money damages in an amount of the judgment, and 4 expenses and reasonable attorney's fees spent in defending the 5 action;

6 (2) costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees
7 incurred in bringing an action under this section; and

8 (3) additional statutory damages in an amount of not 9 less than $100,000.

10 SUBCHAPTER H. CRIMINAL OFFENSES

11 Sec. 171A.351. OFFENSE: PAYING OR REIMBURSING ABORTION
12 COSTS. (a) A person that knowingly pays for or reimburses the costs 13 associated with obtaining an elective abortion performed on a 14 pregnant woman commits an offense. An offense under this 15 subsection is a felony of the second degree, except that the offense 16 is a felony of the first degree if an unborn child dies as a result 17 of the offense.

18 (b) The prohibition under Subsection (a) applies regardless 19 of:

20 (1) the individual on whom the elective abortion is 21 performed;

22 (2) the location at which the elective abortion is 23 performed;

24 (3) the law of the jurisdiction in which the elective 25 abortion is performed; and 26 (4) whether the payment or reimbursement is provided 27 directly or through an intermediary.

1 (c) The prohibition under Subsection (a) does not apply to a 2 pregnant woman on whom an elective abortion is performed or 3 attempted.

4 (d) The prohibition under Subsection (a) applies
5 extraterritorially to the maximum extent permitted by the United 6 States Constitution or the Texas Constitution.

7 Sec. 171A.352. OFFENSE: DESTROYING EVIDENCE OF ABORTION.

8 (a) A person commits an offense if the person knowingly or 9 recklessly conceals, destroys, or spoliates evidence of an elective 10 abortion performed or attempted:

11 (1) in this state; or

12 (2) on a resident of this state, regardless of whether 13 the person knew or should have known that the elective abortion was 14 performed or attempted on the resident.

15 (b) An offense under Subsection (a) is a felony of the 16 second degree, except that the offense is a felony of the first 17 degree if an unborn child dies as a result of the offense.

18 (c) The prohibition under Subsection (a) does not apply to a 19 pregnant woman on whom an elective abortion is performed or 20 attempted.

21 (d) The prohibition under Subsection (a) applies
22 extraterritorially to the maximum extent permitted by the United 23 States Constitution or the Texas Constitution.

24 SUBCHAPTER I. PROVISIONS RELATING TO ENFORCEMENT OF ABORTION LAWS

25 Sec. 171A.401. DEFINITION. In this subchapter, "abortion 26 law" means any law of this state regulating abortion, including 27 this chapter and Chapter 6-1/2, Title 71, Revised Statutes.

1 Sec. 171A.402. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. Notwithstanding any 2 other law, there is no applicable statute of limitations for an 3 offense committed under an abortion law.

4 Sec. 171A.403. CONCURRENT JURISDICTION OF ATTORNEY 5 GENERAL. Notwithstanding any other law, the attorney general has 6 concurrent jurisdiction to prosecute any abortion law and may 7 authorize a district attorney to investigate or prosecute a 8 violation of an abortion law if a local district attorney fails or 9 refuses to investigate or prosecute the violation.

10 Sec. 171A.404. ATTORNEY GENERAL ACTION FOR VIOLATION OF 11 CERTAIN ABORTION LAWS. (a) The attorney general has parens patriae 12 standing to bring an action under this section on behalf of unborn 13 children of residents of this state.

14 (b) The attorney general may bring an action for damages or 15 injunctive relief on behalf of an unborn child of a resident of this 16 state against a person who violates any abortion law of this state 17 except for Subchapter H, Chapter 171, or Subchapter B, C, or E of 18 this chapter.

19 Sec. 171A.405. FEE SHIFTING. (a) Notwithstanding any other 20 law, a person, including an entity, attorney, or law firm, who 21 brings an action seeking declaratory or injunctive relief to 22 prevent a person, including this state, a political subdivision of 23 this state, or an officer, employee, or agent of this state or a 24 political subdivision of this state, from enforcing or bringing an 25 action to enforce a law, including a statute, ordinance, rule, or 26 regulation, that regulates or restricts abortion or that limits 27 taxpayer funding for persons that perform or promote abortions in a

1 state or federal court or who represents a litigant seeking such 2 relief in a state or federal court is jointly and severally liable 3 to pay the costs and reasonable attorney's fees of the prevailing 4 party in the action seeking declaratory or injunctive relief.

5 (b) For purposes of this section, a party is considered a 6 prevailing party if a state or federal court:

7 (1) dismisses a claim or cause of action brought 8 against the party that seeks the declaratory or injunctive relief 9 described by Subsection (a), regardless of the reason for the 10 dismissal; or

11 (2) enters judgment in the party's favor on that claim 12 or cause of action.

13 (c) A prevailing party may recover costs and reasonable 14 attorney's fees under this section only to the extent that those 15 costs and attorney's fees were incurred while defending claims or 16 causes of action on which the party prevailed.

17 (d) Regardless of whether a prevailing party sought to 18 recover costs or attorney's fees in the underlying action, a 19 prevailing party under this section may bring a civil action to 20 recover costs and attorney's fees against a person, including an 21 entity, attorney, or law firm, who sought declaratory or injunctive 22 relief described by Subsection (a) not later than the third 23 anniversary of the date on which, as applicable:

24 (1) the dismissal or judgment described by Subsection 25 (b) becomes final on the conclusion of appellate review; or 26 (2) the time for seeking appellate review expires.

27 (e) It is not a defense to an action brought under

1 Subsection (d) that:

2 (1) a prevailing party under this section failed to 3 seek recovery of costs or attorney's fees in the underlying action;

4 (2) the court in the underlying action declined to 5 recognize or enforce this section; or

6 (3) the court in the underlying action held that any 7 provisions of this section are invalid, unconstitutional, or 8 preempted by federal law, notwithstanding the doctrines of issue or 9 claim preclusion.

10 SUBCHAPTER J. IMMUNITY AND LIMITS ON STATE-COURT JURISDICTION

11 Sec. 171A.451. SOVEREIGN, GOVERNMENTAL, AND OFFICIAL 12 IMMUNITY. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) but 13 notwithstanding any other law, the state has sovereign immunity, a 14 political subdivision of this state has governmental immunity, and 15 an officer or employee of this state or a political subdivision of 16 this state has official immunity in an action, claim, counterclaim, 17 or any other type of legal or equitable action that:

18 (1) challenges the validity of any provision or 19 application of this chapter, on constitutional grounds or 20 otherwise; or

21 (2) seeks to prevent or enjoin this state, a political 22 subdivision of this state, or an officer or employee of this state 23 or a political subdivision of this state from:

24 (A) enforcing any provision or application of 25 this chapter; or

26 (B) hearing, adjudicating, or docketing a civil 27 action brought under Section 171A.101, 171A.151, or 171A.201.

1 (b) Subsection (a) does not apply to the extent that 2 immunity has been abrogated or preempted by federal law in a manner 3 consistent with the United States Constitution.

4 (c) Sovereign immunity conferred by this section includes 5 the constitutional sovereign immunity recognized by the United 6 States Supreme Court, which applies in both state and federal court 7 and may not be abrogated by Congress or by a state or federal court 8 except under legislation authorized by:

9 (1) Section 5 of the Fourteenth Amendment, United 10 States Constitution;

11 (2) the Bankruptcy Clause of Article I, United States 12 Constitution; or

13 (3) Congress's powers to raise and support armies and 14 to provide and maintain a navy.

15 Sec. 171A.452. APPLICABILITY OF IMMUNITY. Notwithstanding 16 any other law, the immunity conferred by Section 171A.451 applies 17 to every court, both state and federal, and in every type of 18 adjudicative proceeding.

19 Sec. 171A.453. CONSTRUCTION OF CHAPTER. This chapter may 20 not be construed to prevent a litigant from asserting the 21 invalidity or unconstitutionality of a provision or application of 22 this chapter as a defense to an action, claim, or counterclaim 23 brought against the litigant.

24 Sec. 171A.454. WAIVER OF IMMUNITY. (a) Notwithstanding any 25 other law, a provision of the laws of this state may not be 26 construed to waive or abrogate an immunity conferred by Section 27 171A.451 unless it expressly waives or abrogates immunity with

1 specific reference to that section.

2 (b) Notwithstanding any other law, an attorney representing 3 the state, a political subdivision of this state, or an officer or 4 employee of this state or a political subdivision of this state may 5 not waive an immunity conferred by Section 171A.451 or take an 6 action that would result in a waiver of that immunity. A purported 7 waiver or action described by this subsection is considered void 8 and an ultra vires act.

9 Sec. 171A.455. JURISDICTION. Notwithstanding any other 10 law, a court of this state does not have jurisdiction to consider 11 and may not award relief under any action, claim, or counterclaim 12 that:

13 (1) seeks declaratory or injunctive relief, or any 14 type of writ, that would pronounce any provision or application of 15 this subchapter invalid or unconstitutional; or

16 (2) would restrain a person, including this state, a 17 political subdivision of this state, or an officer or employee of 18 this state or a political subdivision of this state, from:

19 (A) enforcing any provision or application of 20 this chapter; or

21 (B) hearing, adjudicating, or docketing a civil 22 action brought under Section 171A.101, 171A.151, or 171A.201.

23 Sec. 171A.456. EFFECT OF CONTRARY JUDICIAL ACTIONS. (a) 24 Notwithstanding any other law, judicial relief issued by a court of 25 this state that disregards the immunity conferred by Section 26 171A.451 or the jurisdictional limitation described by Section
27 171A.455:

1 (1) is considered void because a court without 2 jurisdiction issued the relief; and

3 (2) may not be enforced or obeyed by an officer,
4 employee, or agent, including a judicial official, of this state or 5 a political subdivision of this state.

6 (b) Notwithstanding any other law, a writ, injunction, or 7 declaratory judgment issued by a court of this state that purports 8 to restrain a person, including the state, a political subdivision
9 of this state, or an officer or employee of this state or a
10 political subdivision of this state, from hearing, adjudicating, 11 docketing, or filing an action brought under Section 171A.101, 12 171A.151, or 171A.201:

13 (1) is considered void and a violation of the Due 14 Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States 15 Constitution; and

16 (2) may not be enforced or obeyed by an officer,
17 employee, or agent, including a judicial official, of this state or 18 a political subdivision of this state.

19 Sec. 171A.457. LIABILITY FOR VIOLATION. (a) 20 Notwithstanding any other law, a person may bring an action against 21 an officer, employee, or agent, including a judicial official, of 22 this state or a political subdivision of this state, who issues, 23 enforces, or obeys a writ, injunction, or declaratory judgment
24 described by Subsection (b) if the writ, injunction, or judgment
25 prevents or delays the person from bringing an action under Section 26 171A.101, 171A.151, or 171A.201.

27 (b) A claimant who prevails in an action brought under this

1 section is entitled to:

2 (1) injunctive relief;

3 (2) compensatory damages;

4 (3) exemplary damages of not less than $100,000; and

5 (4) costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

6 (c) Notwithstanding any other law, in an action brought 7 under this section, a person who violates Section 171A.455 or 8 171A.456(b):

9 (1) may not assert and is not entitled to any type of 10 immunity defense, including sovereign immunity, governmental 11 immunity, official immunity, or judicial immunity;

12 (2) may not be indemnified for an award of damages or 13 costs and attorney's fees entered against the person or for the 14 costs of the person's legal defense; and 15 (3) may not receive or obtain legal representation 16 from the attorney general.

17 Sec. 171A.458. ACTION TO RECOVER COSTS. (a)
18 Notwithstanding any other law, a claimant who brings an action 19 seeking a writ, injunction, or declaratory judgment that would 20 restrain a person from hearing, adjudicating, docketing, or filing 21 an action under Section 171A.101, 171A.151, or 171A.201 is liable 22 to the person for the person's costs and attorney's fees incurred in 23 connection with the action.

24 (b) A person entitled to recover costs and attorney's fees 25 under this section may bring an action in state or federal court.

26 (c) It is not a defense to an action brought under this 27 section that:

1 (1) the claimant failed to seek recovery of costs or 2 attorney's fees in the underlying action;

3 (2) the court in the underlying action declined to 4 recognize or enforce this section; or

5 (3) the court in the underlying action held that any 6 provisions of this section are invalid, unconstitutional, or 7 preempted by federal law, notwithstanding the doctrines of issue or 8 claim preclusion.

9 SECTION 4. Section 71.02(a), Penal Code, is amended to read 10 as follows:

11 (a) A person commits an offense if, with the intent to 12 establish, maintain, or participate in a combination or in the 13 profits of a combination or as a member of a criminal street gang, 14 the person commits or conspires to commit one or more of the 15 following:

16 (1) murder, capital murder, arson, aggravated 17 robbery, robbery, burglary, theft, aggravated kidnapping, 18 kidnapping, aggravated assault, aggravated sexual assault, sexual 19 assault, continuous sexual abuse of young child or disabled 20 individual, solicitation of a minor, forgery, deadly conduct, 21 assault punishable as a Class A misdemeanor, burglary of a motor 22 vehicle, or unauthorized use of a motor vehicle;

23 (2) any gambling offense punishable as a Class A 24 misdemeanor;

25 (3) promotion of prostitution, aggravated promotion 26 of prostitution, or compelling prostitution;

27 (4) unlawful manufacture, transportation, repair, or

- 1 sale of firearms or prohibited weapons;
- 2 (5) unlawful manufacture, delivery, dispensation, or 3 distribution of a controlled substance or dangerous drug, or 4 unlawful possession of a controlled substance or dangerous drug 5 through forgery, fraud, misrepresentation, or deception;
- 6 (5-a) causing the unlawful delivery, dispensation, or 7 distribution of a controlled substance or dangerous drug in 8 violation of Subtitle B, Title 3, Occupations Code;
- 9 (6) any unlawful wholesale promotion or possession of 10 any obscene material or obscene device with the intent to wholesale 11 promote the same;
- 12 (7) any offense under Subchapter B, Chapter 43, 13 depicting or involving conduct by or directed toward a child 14 younger than 18 years of age;
- 15 (8) any felony offense under Chapter 32;
- 16 (9) any offense under Chapter 36;
- 17 (10) any offense under Chapter 34, 35, or 35A;
- 18 (11) any offense under Section 37.11(a);
- 19 (12) any offense under Chapter 20A;
- 20 (13) any offense under Section 37.10;
- 21 (14) any offense under Section 38.06, 38.07, 38.09, or 22 38.11;
- 23 (15) any offense under Section 42.10;
- 24 (16) any offense under Section 46.06(a)(1) or 46.14;
- 25 (17) any offense under Section 20.05 or 20.06;
- 26 (18) any offense under Section 16.02; [~~or~~]
- 27 (19) any offense classified as a felony under the Tax

1 Code;

2 (20) a violation of 18 U.S.C. Section 1462(c);

3 (21) a violation of an abortion law under Chapter 170, 4 170A, 171, or 171A, Health and Safety Code, or Chapter 6-1/2, Title 5 71, Revised Statutes; and

6 (22) an offense under Chapter 28 directed at a church, 7 a crisis pregnancy center, an adoption agency, or an entity that 8 offers alternatives to abortion services.

9 SECTION 5. (a) Mindful of Leavitt v. Jane L., 518 U.S. 137
10 (1996), in which in the context of determining the severability of a 11 state statute regulating abortion the United States Supreme Court 12 held that an explicit statement of legislative intent is 13 controlling, it is the intent of the legislature that every 14 provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word 15 in this Act, and every application of the provisions in this Act to 16 every person, group of persons, or circumstances, are severable 17 from each other.

18 (b) If any application of any provision in this Act to any 19 person, group of persons, or circumstances is found by a court to be 20 invalid, preempted, or unconstitutional, for any reason 21 whatsoever, then the remaining applications of that provision to 22 all other persons and circumstances shall be severed and preserved, 23 and shall remain in effect. All constitutionally valid applications 24 of the provisions in this Act shall be severed from any applications 25 that a court finds to be invalid, preempted, or unconstitutional, 26 because it is the legislature's intent and priority that every 27 single valid application of every statutory provision be allowed to 1 stand alone.

2 (c) The legislature further declares that it would have 3 enacted this Act, and each provision, section, subsection, 4 sentence, clause, phrase, or word, and all constitutional 5 applications of the provisions of this Act, irrespective of the 6 fact that any provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, 7 phrase, or word, or applications of this Act were to be declared 8 invalid, preempted, or unconstitutional.

9 (d) If any provision of this Act is found by any court to be 10 unconstitutionally vague, then the applications of that provision 11 that do not present constitutional vagueness problems shall be 12 severed and remain in force, consistent with the severability 13 requirements of Subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this section.

14 (e) No court may decline to enforce the severability
15 requirements of Subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section 16 on the ground that severance would rewrite the statute or involve 17 the court in legislative or lawmaking activity. A court that 18 declines to enforce or enjoins a state official from enforcing a 19 statutory provision is not rewriting a statute or engaging in 20 legislative or lawmaking activity, as the statute continues to 21 contain the same words as before the court's decision. A judicial 22 injunction or declaration of unconstitutionality:

23 (1) is nothing more than an edict prohibiting 24 enforcement of the disputed statute against the named parties to 25 that lawsuit, which may subsequently be vacated by a later court if 26 that court has a different understanding of the requirements of the 27 Texas Constitution or United States Constitution;

1 (2) is not a formal amendment of the language in a 2 statute; and

3 (3) no more rewrites a statute than a decision by the 4 executive not to enforce a duly enacted statute in a limited and 5 defined set of circumstances.

6 (f) If any state or federal court disregards any of the 7 severability requirements in Subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e)
8 of this section, and declares or finds any provision of this Act 9 facially invalid, preempted, or unconstitutional, when there are 10 discrete applications of that provision that can be enforced 11 against a person, a group of persons, or circumstances without 12 violating federal law or the United States Constitution or Texas 13 Constitution, then that provision shall be interpreted, as a matter 14 of state law, as if the legislature had enacted a provision limited 15 to the persons, group of persons, or circumstances for which the 16 provision's application will not violate federal law or the United 17 States Constitution or Texas Constitution, and every court shall 18 adopt this saving construction of that provision until the court 19 ruling that pronounced the provision facially invalid, preempted, 20 or unconstitutional is vacated or overruled.

21 SECTION 6. Chapter 171A, Health and Safety Code, as added by 22 this Act, applies only to a cause of action that accrues on or after 23 the effective date of this Act.

24 SECTION 7. Section 71.02, Penal Code, as amended by this 25 Act, applies only to an offense committed on or after the effective 26 date of this Act. An offense committed before the effective date of 27 this Act is governed by the law in effect on the date the offense was

1 committed, and the former law is continued in effect for that 2 purpose. For purposes of this section, an offense was committed 3 before the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense 4 occurred before that date.

5 SECTION 8. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives 6 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 7 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 8 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 9 Act takes effect on the 91st day after the last day of the 10 legislative session.
