Sec. 29.374. RIGHT TO INTERVENE IN CIVIL ACTION. (a) A program participant, education service provider, or vendor of educational products may intervene in any civil action challenging the constitutionality of the program.

(b) A court in which a civil action described by Subsection
(a) is filed may require that all program participants, education service providers, and vendors of educational products wishing to intervene in the action file a joint brief. A program participant, education service provider, or vendor of educational products may not be required to join a brief filed on behalf of the state or a state agency.

SECTION 3. Section 22.092(d), Education Code, is amended to read as follows:

(d) The agency shall provide equivalent access to the registry maintained under this section to:

(1) private schools;
(2) public schools; [and]
(3) nonprofit teacher organizations approved by the commissioner for the purpose of participating in the tutoring program established under Section 33.913; and
(4) the comptroller for the purpose of preapproving education service providers and vendors of educational products under Section 29.358 for participation in the program established under Subchapter J, Chapter 29.

SECTION 4. Section 411.109, Government Code, is amended by adding Subsection (b-1) and amending Subsection (c) to read as follows:

(b-1) The comptroller is entitled to obtain criminal history record information as provided by Subsection (c) about a person who is a private tutor, a therapist, or an employee of a teaching service or school who intends to provide educational services to a child participating in the program established under Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, and is seeking approval to receive money distributed under that program.

(c) Subject to Section 411.087 and consistent with the public policy of this state, the comptroller is entitled to:

(1) obtain through the Federal Bureau of Investigation criminal history record information maintained or indexed by that bureau that pertains to a person described by Subsection (a), [or] (b), or (b-1); and

(2) obtain from the department or any other criminal justice agency in this state criminal history record information maintained by the department or that criminal justice agency that relates to a person described by Subsection (a), [or] (b), or (b-1).

SECTION 5. Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, applies beginning with the 2024-2025 school year.

SECTION 6. (a) Not later than May 15, 2024, the comptroller of public accounts shall adopt rules as provided by Sections 29.356(b-1) and 29.372, Education Code, as added by this Act.

(b) The comptroller of public accounts may identify rules
required by the passage of Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, that must be adopted on an emergency basis for purposes of the 2024-2025 school year and may use the procedures established under Section 2001.034, Government Code, for adopting those rules. The comptroller of public accounts is not required to make the finding described by Section 2001.034(a), Government Code, to adopt emergency rules under this subsection.

SECTION 7. (a) The constitutionality and other validity under the state or federal constitution of all or any part of Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, may be determined in an action for declaratory judgment under Chapter 37, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, in a district court in the county in which the violation is alleged to have occurred or where the plaintiff resides or has its principal place of business.

(b) An order, however characterized, of a trial court granting or denying a temporary or otherwise interlocutory injunction or a permanent injunction on the grounds of the constitutionality or unconstitutionality, or other validity or invalidity, under the state or federal constitution of all or any part of Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, may be reviewed only by direct appeal to the Texas Supreme Court filed not later than the 15th business day after the date on which the order was entered. The Texas Supreme Court shall give precedence to appeals under this section over other matters.

(c) The direct appeal is an accelerated appeal.

(d) This section exercises the authority granted by Section 3-b, Article V, Texas Constitution.

(e) The filing of a direct appeal under this section will automatically stay any temporary or otherwise interlocutory injunction or permanent injunction granted in accordance with this section pending final determination by the Texas Supreme Court, unless the supreme court makes specific findings that the applicant seeking such injunctive relief has pleaded and proved that:

1. the applicant has a probable right to the relief it seeks on final hearing;

2. the applicant will suffer a probable injury that is imminent and irreparable, and that the applicant has no other adequate legal remedy; and

3. maintaining the injunction is in the public interest.
(f) An appeal under this section, including an interlocutory, accelerated, or direct appeal, is governed, as applicable, by the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure, including Rules 25.1(d)(6), 28.1, 32.1(g), 37.3(a)(1), 38.6(a) and (b), 40.1(b), and 49.4.

(g) This section does not authorize an award of attorney's fees against this state, and Section 37.009, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, does not apply to an action filed under this section.

(h) This section does not authorize a taxpayer suit to contest the denial of a tax credit by the comptroller of public accounts.

SECTION 8. It is the intent of the legislature that every provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, and every application of the provisions in this Act to each person or entity, is severable from each other. If any application of any provision in this Act to any person, group of persons, or circumstances is found by a court to be invalid for any reason, the remaining applications of that provision to all other persons and circumstances shall be severed and may not be affected.

SECTION 9. This Act takes effect on the 91st day after the last day of the legislative session.
