SECTION 7. (a) The constitutionality and other validity under the state or federal constitution of all or any part of Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, may be determined in an action for declaratory judgment under Chapter 37, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, in a district court in the county in which the violation is alleged to have occurred or where the plaintiff resides or has its principal place of business.

(b) An order, however characterized, of a trial court granting or denying a temporary or otherwise interlocutory injunction or a permanent injunction on the grounds of the constitutionality or unconstitutionality, or other validity or invalidity, under the state or federal constitution of all or any part of Subchapter J, Chapter 29, Education Code, as added by this Act, may be reviewed only by direct appeal to the Texas Supreme Court filed not later than the 15th business day after the date on which the order was entered. The Texas Supreme Court shall give precedence to appeals under this section over other matters.

(c) The direct appeal is an accelerated appeal.

(d) This section exercises the authority granted by Section 3-b, Article V, Texas Constitution.

(e) The filing of a direct appeal under this section will automatically stay any temporary or otherwise interlocutory injunction or permanent injunction granted in accordance with this section pending final determination by the Texas Supreme Court, unless the supreme court makes specific findings that the applicant seeking such injunctive relief has pleaded and proved that:

(1) the applicant has a probable right to the relief it seeks on final hearing;

(2) the applicant will suffer a probable injury that is imminent and irreparable, and that the applicant has no other adequate legal remedy; and

(3) maintaining the injunction is in the public interest.

(f) An appeal under this section, including an interlocutory, accelerated, or direct appeal, is governed, as applicable, by the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure, including Rules 25.1(d)(6), 28.1, 32.1(g), 37.3(a)(1), 38.6(a) and (b), 40.1(b), and 49.4.

(g) This section does not authorize an award of attorney's fees against this state, and Section 37.009, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, does not apply to an action filed under this section.

(h) This section does not authorize a taxpayer suit to contest the denial of a tax credit by the comptroller of public accounts.

SECTION 8. It is the intent of the legislature that every provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, and every application of the provisions in this Act to each person or entity, is severable from each other. If any application of any provision in this Act to any person, group of persons, or circumstances is found by a court to be invalid for any reason, the remaining applications of that provision to all other persons and circumstances shall be severed and may not be affected.

SECTION 9. This Act takes effect on the 91st day after the last day of the legislative session.
