AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

In 2011, the legislature created the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD) after previous agencies were abolished following abuse scandals and operational problems. Today, TJJD both manages state-level facilities and oversees 165 county juvenile probation departments. While TJJD's functions remain necessary, the Sunset Advisory Commission found the agency is trapped in a longstanding cycle of instability. Chronic staff shortages fuel TJJD's current turmoil, heightening safety risks, decreasing access to rehabilitation, and preventing greater focus on diversion from state commitment. Meanwhile, the agency's governing board has not provided the consistent, engaged leadership needed to guide the juvenile justice system out of ongoing crises. TJJD is subject to abolishment under the Sunset Act on September 1, 2023, unless continued by the legislature.

The Sunset Advisory Commission also found the Office of the Independent Ombudsman (OIO) continues to fulfill a critical role by securing the rights of post-adjudicated youth. However, its statutory authority and inspection procedures require updates to minimize risks impacting youth, staff, and county stakeholders. OIO is not subject to abolishment under the Sunset Act.

Major Provisions in the Sunset Bill:

- Continues TJJD for two years, and requires Sunset staff to conduct a limited-scope review of the agency during the 2024-24 biennium.
- Sweeps TJJD's board, reduces its size from 13 to nine members, and strengthens its oversight and training requirements.
- Advances legislative regionalization reforms designed to keep youth closer to home.
- Aligns TJJD's regulation of juveniles facilities and county-level employees with best practices
- Revises various confinement practices for justice-involved youth.
- Updates OIO's statute to align with the office's current practices and ongoing needs

S.B. 1727 amends current law relating to the continuation and functions of the Texas Juvenile Justice Department, the functions of the office of independent ombudsman for the Texas Juvenile Justice Department, and the powers and duties of the office of inspector general of the Texas Juvenile Justice Department.
