A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to protected expression, intellectual freedom, and viewpoint diversity at public institutions of higher education.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 51.354, Education Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 51.354. INSTITUTIONAL RESPONSIBILITY. In addition to specific responsibilities imposed by this code or other law, each institution of higher education has the general responsibility to:

(1) permit the diffusion of culture through general education;

(2) facilitate the discovery, improvement, and dissemination of knowledge;

(3) teach and train students for professions;

(4) provide for scientific, engineering, medical, and other academic research;

(5) protect intellectual exploration and academic freedom;

(6) strive for intellectual excellence;

(7) provide educational opportunity through postsecondary education and training; and

(8) provide continuing education opportunities;
(9) foster a diversity of viewpoints; and

(10) maintain political, social, and cultural neutrality.

SECTION 2. Section 51.9315(a)(2), Education Code, is amended to read as follows:

(2) "Expressive activities" means any speech or expressive conduct protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution or by Section 8, Article I, Texas Constitution, and includes assemblies, protests, speeches, the distribution of written material, the carrying of signs, [and] the circulation of petitions, and published or unpublished faculty research, lectures, writings, and commentary. The term does not include commercial speech.

SECTION 3. Section 51.9315, Education Code, is amended by amending Subsection (f) and adding Subsection (k) to read as follows:

(f) Each institution of higher education shall adopt a policy detailing students' rights and responsibilities regarding expressive activities at the institution. The policy must:

(1) demonstrate a commitment to intellectual freedom and viewpoint diversity;

(2) prohibit:

(A) the funding, promotion, sponsorship, or support of:

(i) any office of diversity, equity, and inclusion; and

(ii) any office that funds, promotes, sponsors, or supports an initiative or formulation of diversity, equity, and inclusion beyond what is necessary to uphold the equal protection of the laws under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

(B) the endorsement or dissuasion of, or interference with, any lifestyle, race, sex, religion, or culture.

(3) allow:

(A) any person to, subject to reasonable restrictions adopted under Subsection (d), engage in expressive activities on campus, including by responding to the expressive activities of others; and

(B) student organizations and faculty to, subject to Subsection (h), invite speakers to speak on campus;

(4) establish disciplinary sanctions for students, student organizations, or faculty who unduly interfere with the expressive activities of others on campus;

(5) include a grievance procedure for addressing complaints of a violation of this section;

(6) be approved by a majority vote of the institution's governing board before final adoption; and

(7) be posted on the institution's Internet website.

(k) A person may bring an action for injunctive relief against an institution of higher education to compel the institution to comply with this section. If the person prevails in the action, the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and court costs to the person. The institution shall pay the fees and
