H.B. No. 1120

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

2 relating to orders for possession of and access to a child in a suit 3 affecting the parent-child relationship.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

5 SECTION 1. Section 153.253, Family Code, is amended to read 6 as follows:

Sec. 153.253. STANDARD POSSESSION ORDER INAPPROPRIATE OR 7 UNWORKABLE. The court shall render an order that grants periods of 8 9 possession of the child as similar as possible to those provided by the standard possession order if the work schedule or other special 10 circumstances of the managing conservator, the possessory 11 12 conservator, or the child, or the year-round school schedule of the 13 child, make the standard possession order unworkable or inappropriate. 14

15 SECTION 2. Section 153.254, Family Code, is amended by 16 amending Subsection (a) and adding Subsections (b) and (c) to read 17 as follows:

(a) The court shall render an order appropriate under the circumstances for possession of a child less than three years of age. In rendering the order, the court shall consider evidence of all relevant factors, including:

(1) the preexisting parent-child relationship, including whether there has been minimal or inconsistent contact with the child and the child's siblings, if applicable [caregiving
