23 (b) The hearing is an opportunity for a justice or judge to 24 confer with the child and the child's parent to determine whether a 25 diversion should be declared unsuccessful by the court. The court
26 may also hear from any person who may be of assistance to the child 27 or the court in determining what is in the best interests of the

27 that the interference is necessary to prevent significant

1 impairment of the child's physical, mental, or emotional health.

2 (e) An order under Subsection (c)(4) is enforceable against 3 the parent by contempt.

4 (f) The statute of limitations in Article 12.02(b) is tolled
