H.C.R. No. 54

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, The Texas Legislature respectfully notifies the 2 federal government of a series of alleged boating accidents that 3 occurred across Hunt, Hopkins, Van Zandt, and possibly other
4 counties on January 10, 2023, which involved all private gun owners
5 in these counties, and thankfully, allegedly resulted in no injury 6 or loss of life; and

7 WHEREAS, Due to the series of alleged boating accidents, the 8 Texas Legislature also wishes to notify the federal government of 9 the alleged loss of all firearms, accessories, and ammunition owned 10 by all private gun owners in the counties of Hunt, Hopkins, Van 11 Zandt, and possibly other counties; and

12 WHEREAS, As a result of the alleged events, the Texas
13 Legislature wishes to inform the federal government, the current 14 presidential administration, and any future administration that
15 any attempt to buyback, confiscate, or register some or all 16 firearms, accessories, or ammunition from private gun owners in the 17 counties of Hunt, Hopkins, Van Zandt, and possibly other counties
18 will not be possible or necessary; now, therefore, be it

19 RESOLVED, That the 88th Legislature of the State of Texas
20 hereby notifies the federal government of the unfortunate alleged 21 loss of all firearms, accessories, and ammunition of all private 22 gun owners in the counties of Hunt, Hopkins, Van Zandt, and possibly 23 other counties due to a series of alleged boating accidents; and, be 24 it further

1 RESOLVED, That the Texas House of Representatives and Senate
2 submit the notification to the federal government, the current
3 presidential administration, and any future administration that
4 any attempt to buyback, confiscate, or register some or all
5 firearms, accessories, and ammunition will not be possible or 6 necessary in the counties of Hunt, Hopkins, Van Zandt, and possibly 7 other counties due to this series of alleged boating accidents.
