

By: Burns

H.C.R. No. 110

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, Teachers play a vital role in the academic success
2 of our young people, and the designation of October 5 as Texas
3 Teachers' Day serves as a fitting means to honor those who dedicate 4 themselves to this important calling; and

5 WHEREAS, By providing a high-quality education to millions of 6 students across the state, Texas teachers are helping to ensure 7 that the future of our communities rests in capable hands;
8 educators devote countless hours to fostering supportive learning
9 environments, and they demonstrate exceptional professionalism,
10 creativity, adaptability, and resilience in all their endeavors; 11 and

12 WHEREAS, Each year, city councils, school boards,
13 businesses, and local residents celebrate Texas Teachers' Day on 14 October 5; held in conjunction with World Teachers' Day, the Texas 15 observance encompasses special events and fundraising campaigns to 16 benefit educators; participants also display light blue ribbons and 17 illuminate buildings in the same color to symbolically acknowledge 18 the role that teachers play as guiding lights for their students; 19 and

20 WHEREAS, Those who accept the demanding yet rewarding work of 21 educating our children deserve the deepest gratitude of every 22 Texan, and the official designation of Texas Teachers' Day helps 23 raise awareness of their essential contributions; now, therefore,
24 be it

1           RESOLVED, That the 88th Legislature of the State of Texas
2 hereby designate October 5 as Texas Teachers' Day; and, be it
3 further

4           RESOLVED, That, in accordance with the provisions of Section
5 391.004(d), Government Code, this designation remain in effect
6 until the 10th anniversary of the date this resolution is finally 7 passed by the legislature.