H.J.R. No. 153

A JOINT RESOLUTION

1 proposing a constitutional amendment to authorize a political 2 subdivision other than a school district to establish a limitation
3 on the amount of ad valorem taxes that the political subdivision may 4 impose on the residence homesteads of persons who are disabled or 5 elderly and their surviving spouses.

6 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

7 SECTION 1. Section 1-b(h), Article VIII, Texas
8 Constitution, is amended to read as follows:

9 (h) The governing body of a political subdivision of this 10 state other than a school [~~a county, a city or town, or a junior~~ 11 ~~college~~] district by official action may provide that if a person 12 who is disabled or is 65 [~~sixty-five (65)~~] years of age or older 13 receives a residence homestead exemption prescribed or authorized 14 by this section, the total amount of ad valorem taxes imposed on 15 that homestead by the political subdivision [~~county, the city or~~ 16 ~~town, or the junior college district~~] may not be increased while it 17 remains the residence homestead of that person or that person's 18 spouse who is disabled or is 65 [~~sixty-five (65)~~] years of age or 19 older and receives a residence homestead exemption on the 20 homestead. As an alternative, on receipt of a petition signed by 21 five percent [~~5%~~] of the registered voters of the political 22 subdivision [~~county, the city or town, or the junior college~~ 23 ~~district~~], the governing body [~~of the county, the city or town, or~~ 24 ~~the junior college district~~] shall call an election to determine by

1 majority vote whether to establish a tax limitation provided by 2 this subsection. If a political subdivision [~~county, a city or~~ 3 ~~town, or a junior college district~~] establishes a tax limitation
4 provided by this subsection and a [~~disabled~~] person who is disabled
5 or is 65 [~~a person sixty-five (65)~~] years of age or older dies in a 6 year in which the person received a residence homestead exemption, 7 the total amount of ad valorem taxes imposed on the homestead by the 8 political subdivision [~~county, the city or town, or the junior~~ 9 ~~college district~~] may not be increased while it remains the 10 residence homestead of that person's surviving spouse if the spouse 11 is 55 [~~fifty-five (55)~~] years of age or older at the time of the 12 person's death, subject to any exceptions provided by general law.
13 The legislature, by general law, may provide for the transfer of all 14 or a proportionate amount of a tax limitation provided by this 15 subsection for a person who qualifies for the limitation and 16 establishes a different residence homestead within the same 17 political subdivision [~~county, within the same city or town, or~~ 18 ~~within the same junior college district~~]. A political subdivision 19 [~~county, a city or town, or a junior college district~~] that 20 establishes a tax limitation under this subsection must comply with 21 a law providing for the transfer of the limitation, even if the 22 legislature enacts the law subsequent to the political 23 subdivision's [~~county's, the city's or town's, or the junior college~~
24 ~~district's~~] establishment of the limitation. Taxes otherwise 25 limited by a political subdivision [~~county, a city or town, or a~~ 26 ~~junior college district~~] under this subsection may be increased to 27 the extent the value of the homestead is increased by improvements

1 other than repairs and other than improvements made to comply with 2 governmental requirements and except as may be consistent with the 3 transfer of a tax limitation under a law authorized by this 4 subsection. The governing body of a political subdivision [~~county,~~ 5 ~~a city or town, or a junior college district~~] may not repeal or 6 rescind a tax limitation established under this subsection.

7 SECTION 2. The following temporary provision is added to 8 the Texas Constitution:

9 TEMPORARY PROVISION. (a) This temporary provision applies
10 to the constitutional amendment proposed by the 88th Legislature, 11 Regular Session, 2023, to authorize a political subdivision other 12 than a school district to establish a limitation on the amount of ad
13 valorem taxes the political subdivision may impose on the residence 14 homesteads of persons who are disabled or elderly and their 15 surviving spouses.

16 (b) The amendment to Section 1-b(h), Article VIII, of this 17 constitution takes effect January 1, 2024.

18 (c) This temporary provision expires January 1, 2025.

19 SECTION 3. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be 20 submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 7, 2023.
21 The ballot shall be printed to permit voting for or against the 22 proposition: "The constitutional amendment to authorize a 23 political subdivision other than a school district to establish a 24 limitation on the amount of ad valorem taxes that the political 25 subdivision may impose on the residence homesteads of persons who 26 are disabled or elderly and their surviving spouses."
