H.R. No. 334

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, March 2 marks the anniversary of that historic day
2 in 1836 when residents of Texas officially declared their
3 independence from Mexico, thereby giving birth to the independent
4 republic that would stand on its own for more than nine years before 5 becoming the 28th state of the United States of America; and

6 WHEREAS, The proud Texans who issued the call for 7 independence were impelled by Mexican dictator Antonio López de 8 Santa Anna's adoption of a new constitution in 1836, which 9 eliminated all vestiges of states' rights for Texas and other 10 Mexican states; members of the Convention of 1836 met at 11 Washington-on-the-Brazos on March 1 of that fateful year and wrote 12 the Texas Declaration of Independence; as they gathered, the 13 valiant defenders of the Alamo faced off against the troops of Santa 14 Anna, thereby reaching a crucial point in their campaign for 15 greater political freedom; and

16 WHEREAS, A free and independent Republic of Texas was 17 officially declared on March 2, 1836; stating the views of the 18 delegates in no uncertain terms, the Texas Declaration of 19 Independence listed their grievances against the Mexican 20 government and announced their bold conclusion: "that the people of 21 Texas do now constitute a free, Sovereign, and independent
22 republic, and are fully invested with all the rights and attributes 23 which properly belong to independent nations"; and

24 WHEREAS, The 59 signatories of the Texas Declaration of

1 Independence enunciated a vision of liberty, independence, and just 2 government, further spurring their fellow Texans to press forward
3 for the next six weeks on the battlefield; the victory over Santa
4 Anna at San Jacinto on April 21 solidified Texas' de facto
5 independence, and Texans began a dramatic new course of life in the 6 land they called home; now, therefore, be it

7 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 88th Texas
8 Legislature hereby commemorate Texas Independence Day 2023 and pay 9 tribute to the immense contributions of those individuals who 10 helped to found the Republic of Texas.
