H.R. No. 427

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Proud residents of Galveston County are gathering in 2 Austin on March 1, 2023, to celebrate Galveston County Day at the 3 State Capitol; and

4 WHEREAS, Covering approximately 870 square miles of lush
5 grasslands, warm beaches, and sparkling waters, Galveston County 6 was first inhabited by the Karankawa people and later, several 7 Spanish expeditions passed through the area; the county was formed 8 out of portions of Harrisburg, Liberty, and Brazoria Counties in 9 1838 and named after Bernardo de Gálvez, who supported the United 10 States in the Revolutionary War; and

11 WHEREAS, Galveston, the county's seat, is the birthplace of 12 the national holiday Juneteenth, which marks the day in 1865 that 13 Union Major General Gordon Granger issued General Order No. 3,
14 announcing the freedom of more than 250,000 enslaved Black people 15 in the state; by the late 1800s, the city had become a center for 16 banking and a national hub for immigration, however during the 17 Galveston hurricane of 1900, the deadliest natural disaster in 18 U.S. history, the town was devastated and thousands of lives were 19 lost; in the wake of the storm, the Galveston seawall was 20 constructed; and

21 WHEREAS, The ports of Galveston and Texas City contributed 22 greatly to the rebuilding of the area after the hurricane, and along 23 with the chemical and petrochemical complex, continue to be 24 important to the economic development of the county; additionally,

1 agriculture, livestock, and the fishing and shrimping industries
2 provide jobs for many residents of the region; and

3 WHEREAS, Today, Galveston County is a center for medical 4 services and marine research and is home to a number of institutions
5 of higher education; these include The University of Texas Medical 6 Branch, which encompasses schools of medicine, nursing, health
7 professions, public and population health, and graduate biomedical
8 sciences, and Texas A&M University at Galveston, which is one of six 9 state maritime academies in the nation, as well as College of the 10 Mainland and Galveston College; and

11 WHEREAS, Visitors are drawn to the county's natural beauty
12 and miles of beaches and also enjoy such family-friendly
13 attractions as the Galveston County Fair and Rodeo, the Galveston 14 Island Wild Texas Shrimp Festival, and the Blessing of the Fleet at 15 Kemah; other points of interest include the Strand Historic 16 District, Schlitterbahn Waterpark, the Galveston Island Historic 17 Pleasure Pier, Lone Star Flight Museum, and Moody Gardens; and

18 WHEREAS, Galveston County is blessed with a rich history and 19 abundant natural resources, and its citizens may take great pride
20 in their continuing contributions to the story of the Lone Star
21 State; now, therefore, be it

22 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 88th Texas
23 Legislature hereby recognize March 1, 2023, as Galveston County Day
24 at the State Capitol and extend a warm welcome to the visiting 25 delegation.
