

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, The residents of Abilene lost an admired champion of 2 higher education and friend to all with the passing of former state
3 representative Dr. Robert D. Hunter on February 11, 2023, at the 4 age of 94; and

5           WHEREAS, The son of Grover Cleveland Hunter and Grace May 6 Grubb Hunter, Bob Hunter was born in Dodge City, Kansas, on June 25,
7 1928; he grew up with 11 siblings, and after moving to California,
8 he graduated from high school in San Mateo; he relocated to Texas to 9 enroll at Abilene Christian College, beginning a lifelong 10 affiliation with the institution that would later become Abilene 11 Christian University; a leader in campus life during his 12 undergraduate years, he sang in the A Cappella Chorus and Men's 13 Quartet and served as president of several organizations; he was 14 also vice president of the Student Association and a statewide
15 officer in the Texas Intercollegiate Student Association; after 16 completing his bachelor's degree in business, he served in the U.S.
17 Navy during the Korean War, both in the Far East and with the 18 National Security Agency in Washington, D.C.; and

19           WHEREAS, Dr. Hunter returned to his beloved college alma 20 mater as director of special events, and in 1957, he was named its 21 first director of alumni relations; later, as assistant to the 22 president, he directed the 10-year Design for Development that led 23 to the construction of many new buildings; he eventually rose to 24 become senior vice president, a role that encompassed government

1 relations, before his retirement in 1993; committed to enriching
2 the student and alumni experience, he originated more than two 3 dozen ACU traditions, including Freshman Follies, the Parade of 4 Flags at Opening Assembly, the President's Circle Dinner, the 5 annual alumni awards program, Sing Song, and the Homecoming
6 Musical; he was known for his warm smile and trademark greeting,
7 "Hello, friend," and his tremendous enthusiasm and congeniality
8 helped define the ACU spirit; and

9       WHEREAS, In the 1970s, Dr. Hunter also served the wider 10 community during a term on the Abilene City Council; from 1970 to 11 1980, he was executive vice president of the Independent Colleges
12 and Universities of Texas, and he galvanized support for the 13 legislation creating the Tuition Equalization Grant program; since 14 its establishment, students at private institutions in the state
15 have received Tuition Equalization Grants totaling more than 16 $2.6 billion; and

17       WHEREAS, Dr. Hunter became the first Taylor County
18 Republican to win a seat in the Texas House of Representatives when 19 he was elected in 1986, and he was returned to office in the next 10 20 elections; working tirelessly in behalf of his constituents and 21 higher education in general, he missed just a single roll-call vote
22 over the course of two decades, when his doctors refused his pleas
23 to release him while he was being evaluated for a possible heart 24 attack; for a decade, he chaired the Committee on State, Federal and 25 International Relations, and he later led the House Research 26 Organization; and

27       WHEREAS, In 1990, Representative Hunter championed

1 legislation to enable Cisco College to build a campus in Abilene;
2 when the bill faced a potential veto from Governor William
3 P. Clements, who was displeased with a previous vote by the 4 representative, Dr. Hunter selflessly removed his name from the 5 legislation, and the measure became law; the next year, he was 6 appointed chair of the Higher Education Subcommittee on Budget and 7 Oversight, bringing to that role his deep expertise in the state's 8 dual system of higher education; in addition, he was vice chair for 9 the Committee on Regulated Industries and co-chair of the Special
10 House Select Committee on NAFTA and GATT international trade 11 agreements; no matter how stressful the situation, he lived up to 12 his nickname, "Smilin' Bob," and he brightened the days and earned 13 the affection of countless people in the Capitol community; and

14       WHEREAS, Dr. Hunter further benefited Abilene as a member of 15 the boards and advisory boards of numerous organizations, among 16 them the Classical Chorus of Abilene, Meals on Wheels, the West
17 Texas Rehabilitation Center, the Boys & Girls Clubs, and the 18 Abilene/Taylor County Child Advocacy Center; moreover, he was a
19 lifetime member of the VFW and the American Legion and, for over a 20 half century, he was an active member of University Church of 21 Christ; and

22       WHEREAS, The recipient of myriad accolades, Dr. Hunter was 23 awarded honorary doctorates by ACU, Texas Wesleyan University, the 24 University of St. Thomas, Austin College, Hardin-Simmons
25 University, McMurry University, and Pepperdine University in 26 California; in February 2006, ACU named its Robert D. and Shirley 27 Hunter Welcome Center in honor of Dr. Hunter and his wife; the

1 couple married on May 27, 1954, and they were blessed with three
2 children, Kent, Carole, and Les, as well as numerous grandchildren
3 and great-grandchildren; Mrs. Hunter passed away in 2021; and

4 WHEREAS, The loss of Bob Hunter is keenly felt by the 5 multitude of friends that he made and the many people whose lives he 6 forever enriched, but his enormous contributions will continue to 7 resonate in the years to come, and he will forever hold a special
8 place in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know him;
9 now, therefore, be it

10 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 88th Texas
11 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the memory of the Honorable
12 Dr. Robert D. Hunter and extend sincere condolences to the members 13 of his family: to his children and their spouses, Kent Hunter and 14 Jonathan Blumberg, Carole Phillips and her husband, Danny, and Les 15 Hunter; to his grandchildren and their spouses, Landon and Jennifer
16 Phillips, Chad and Aundrea Phillips, Mitchell and Emily Danesi,
17 Dino Hunter, and Lyra Hunter; to his great-grandchildren, Crawford 18 Danesi, Henley Danesi, Beckham Phillips, and Kenzo Phillips; and to 19 his other relatives and friends; and, be it further

20 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 21 prepared for his family and that when the Texas House of 22 Representatives adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Dr. Bob 23 Hunter.
