H.R. No. 2257

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, America's military veterans hold a revered place in 2 the history of this country and in the hearts of its people, and on 3 Veterans Day, November 11, 2023, Texans across the state are 4 gathering to pay grateful tribute to these selfless men and women; 5 and

6 WHEREAS, Originally celebrated as Armistice Day, in 7 recognition of the day the guns of World War I fell silent, Veterans
8 Day now honors all who have performed military service in this 9 country's behalf; their invincible spirit and dedication to duty,
10 in wartime and in peacetime, are deserving of their fellow 11 citizens' deepest appreciation and gratitude; and

12 WHEREAS, Service in the armed forces demands much of the men 13 and women who undertake it, and the burdens assumed can be great; of 14 the legions who have answered their country's call, millions have 15 died or been wounded during wartime, countless others have endured 16 the privations and hardships of POW camps, and thousands still 17 remain missing; those who have returned home from war have forever 18 carried with them an indelible knowledge of loss and sacrifice; and

19 WHEREAS, To all these men and women, Americans owe a debt that 20 the passage of time can never diminish; it is a debt that calls us to 21 recognize their valiant service and to honor, in deeds as well as 22 words, those high ideals that represent the very best of this 23 nation's heritage; now, therefore, be it

24 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 88th Texas

H.R. No. 2257

1 Legislature hereby commemorate Veterans Day 2023 and honor all of 2 this country's veterans for their steadfast courage, commitment,
3 and patriotism.
