(Z) establishing a local school health advisory council in which members are appointed by the governing body of the school and health education instruction complies with Section 28.004.

SECTION 2. Section 28.004, Education Code, is amended by amending Subsection (c) and adding Subsections (r), (s), (t), (u), and (v) to read as follows:
(c) The local school health advisory council's duties include recommending:

(1) the number of hours of instruction to be provided in:

(A) health education in kindergarten through grade eight; and

(B) if the school district requires health education for high school graduation, health education, including physical health education and mental health education, in grades 9 through 12;

(2) policies, procedures, strategies, and curriculum appropriate for specific grade levels designed to prevent physical health concerns, including obesity, cardiovascular disease, Type 2 diabetes, and mental health concerns, including suicide, through coordination of:

(A) health education, which must address physical health concerns and mental health concerns to ensure the integration of physical health education and mental health education;

(B) physical education and physical activity;

(C) nutrition services;

(D) parental involvement;

(E) instruction on substance abuse prevention;

(F) school health services, including mental health services;

(G) a comprehensive school counseling program under Section 33.005;
(H) a safe and healthy school environment; and
(I) school employee wellness;
(3) appropriate grade levels and methods of instruction for human sexuality instruction;
(4) strategies for integrating the curriculum components specified by Subdivision (2) with the following elements in a coordinated school health program for the district:
(A) school health services, including physical health services and mental health services, if provided at a campus by the district or by a third party under a contract with the district;
(B) a comprehensive school counseling program
under Section 33.005;
(C) a safe and healthy school environment; and
(D) school employee wellness;
(5) if feasible, joint use agreements or strategies for collaboration between the school district and community organizations or agencies;
(6) strategies to increase parental awareness regarding:
(A) risky behaviors and early warning signs of suicide risks and behavioral health concerns, including mental health disorders and substance use disorders; and
(B) available community programs and services that address risky behaviors, suicide risks, and behavioral health concerns;
(7) appropriate grade levels and curriculum for instruction regarding opioid addiction and abuse and methods of administering an opioid antagonist, as defined by Section 483.101, Health and Safety Code; [and]

(8) appropriate grade levels and curriculum for instruction regarding child abuse, family violence, dating violence, and sex trafficking, including likely warning signs that a child may be at risk for sex trafficking, provided that the local school health advisory council's recommendations under this subdivision do not conflict with the essential knowledge and skills developed by the State Board of Education under this subchapter; and

(9) if approved by the board of trustees, the policies, procedures, and circumstances in which:

(A) a school district employee may discuss matters of human sexuality with students; and

(B) a campus may host an extracurricular event related to human sexuality.

(r) The board of trustees may adopt a policy allowing the local school health advisory council to determine the circumstances in which:

(1) a school district employee may discuss matters of human sexuality with students; and

(2) a campus may host an extracurricular event related to human sexuality.

(s) If the board adopts a policy under Subsection (r), the board must notify each parent of a child enrolled in the district of the adoption of the policy before the beginning of each school year.
(t) Except as provided by Subsection (r), a school district employee may not discuss matters of human sexuality with a student in any class or interaction with a student other than a class designed and approved by the board of trustees to provide human sexuality instruction. If the board adopts a policy under Subsection (r) to allow discussion with students regarding human sexuality, a school district employee may discuss matters of human sexuality with a student only in accordance with that policy.

(u) Except as provided by Subsection (r), a campus may not host an extracurricular activity related to human sexuality. If the board of trustees adopts a policy under Subsection (r) specifying the circumstances in which a campus may host an extracurricular activity related to human sexuality, the campus may host the extracurricular activity only in accordance with that policy.

(v) If the attorney general or an appropriate district or county attorney believes that a school district has violated or is violating the provisions of this section, the attorney general or district or county attorney may bring a cause of action on behalf of the state to enjoin the district from violating the provisions of this section. The action may be brought in a district court in Travis County or a county in which any part of the violation or threatened violation occurred. The court may grant any prohibitory or mandatory relief warranted by the facts, including a temporary restraining order, temporary injunction, or permanent injunction.

SECTION 3. Section 28.004, Education Code, as amended by this Act, applies only to a cause of action that accrues on or after the effective date of this Act.
SECTION 4. To the extent of any conflict, this Act prevails over another Act of the 88th Legislature, Regular Session, 2023, relating to nonsubstantive additions to and corrections in enacted codes.

SECTION 5. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect September 1, 2023.
